CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

AUGUST A. BUSCH III

On October 30, 1989, August A. Busch III was named chairman of the board of the St. Louis Cardinals, succeeding his father, the late August A. Busch, Jr.

Mr. Busch also is chairman of the board and president of Anheuser-Busch Companies, Inc. He has held the positions since 1979.

Mr. Busch started his career with Anheuser-Busch in 1957 in the malt house. Since then, he has worked in virtually every department of the company's brewing and operations divisions.

In 1962, Mr. Busch joined the company's marketing department, where he worked in the field with Anheuser-Busch wholesalers. After returning to St. Louis, he was promoted to assistant sales manager – regional brands . He subsequently was named sales manager – regional brands, with responsibility for the marketing of Busch Beer.

In 1963, Mr. Busch was appointed vice president – marketing operations for Anheuser-Busch, Inc. and joined the company's board of directors. Successively, he served as general manager, executive vice president and president before being named chairman of the board of Anheuser-Busch, Inc., in 1975.

Under Mr. Busch's leadership, Anheuser-Busch has significantly widened its leadership of the brewing industry and diversified into non-brewing enterprises. In 1992, the company's beer and other subsidiary operations earned record sales.

Mr. Busch's impact extends well beyond Anheuser-Busch Companies. In 1980, he spearheaded a drive to raise funds to build a new facility for the Mathews-Dickey Boys Club of St. Louis, a self-help organization serving the black community. In 1989, the Martin Luther King Jr. Center for Nonviolent Social Change honored Mr. Busch and the company with its 1989 Corporate Responsibility Award.

During a special ceremony at the White House in 1989, Mr. Busch and the company were honored by President George Bush for their commitment to the Hispanic community. In 1983, he had accepted the Mexican American Legal Defense and Education Fund (MALDEF) Award for Corporate Social Responsibility on behalf of Anheuser-Busch.

In 1982, Mr. Busch was named the U.S. Olympic Committee's "Sportsman of the Year" and received the City of Hope "Spirit of Life Award." He was named St. Louis "Man of the Year" in 1987 and the St. Louis Variety Club's "Man of the Year" in 1989.

Mr. Busch is president and a member of the executive board of the Boy Scouts of America St. Louis Council. He also is a member of Civic Progress, Inc., chairman of the advisory board of St. John's Mercy Medical Center, and a member of the board of directors for the United Way of Greater St. Louis.

PRESIDENT
MARK C. LAMPING

Mark C. Lamping was named president of the St. Louis Cardinals on September 1, 1994, replacing Stuart F. Meyer, who announced his retirement on August 19.

Lamping, 36, came to the Cardinals with a strong sports background. In February 1994, he was appointed commissioner of the Continental Basketball League after serving as Anheuser-Busch's group director of sports marketing. In that position, he coordinated all sports marketing activities on behalf of the company's beer brands, including sponsorship agreements for the Olympics, the World Cup and all major professional sports, including Major League Baseball, the National Football League, the National Hockey League and the National Basketball Association.

Lamping joined Anheuser-Busch in 1981. He initially worked in the company's corporate planning group before serving as a district sales manager in southern Illinois and central Iowa. He also served as the senior brand manager for LA beer and director of sales operations.

A St. Louis native and graduate of Vianney High School, Lamping holds a bachelor's degree in accounting from Rockhurst College in Kansas City and a master's degree in business from St. Louis University. He lives in St. Louis County with his wife, Cheryl, and their children, Brian, Lauren and Timmy.

VICE CHAIRMAN
FRED L. KUHLMANN

Fred L. Kuhlmann retired as president and chief executive officer of the St. Louis Cardinals on December 31, 1991. He currently serves as the club's vice chairman of the board.

Kuhlmann had been president and chief executive officer since October 30, 1989. He joined the Cardinals in 1984, when he was named executive vice president and chief operating officer. Prior to that, Kuhlmann was executive vice president and a member of the policy committee at Anheuser-Busch Companies, Inc., the parent company of the Cardinals.

Kuhlmann's interest in the Cardinals dates to his boyhood. He grew up in the vicinity of old Sportsman's Park and attended public high school before entering Washington University, where he graduated with A.B. and J.D. (law) degrees. He also received an L.L.M. (Masters) degree from Columbia University in New York.

Kuhlmann was a senior partner in a prominent St. Louis law firm before joining Anheuser-Busch in 1967 as general counsel. Subsequently, he was promoted to executive vice president, policy committee member and vice chairman of the board of directors of Anheuser-Busch Companies, Inc. Kuhlmann retired from Anheuser-Busch in December 1983, but still serves as vice chairman of the board of directors and as a consultant to the company.

In addition to his position with the Cardinals, Kuhlmann is chairman of the board of Civic Center Corporation, the Anheuser-Busch Companies subsidiary that owns and operates Busch Stadium and other properties in the downtown St. Louis area. He also serves on the boards of charitable organizations.

Kuhlmann and his wife, Mildred, are the parents of two children, Mrs. Marilyn K. Brickler and F. Mark Kuhlmann.

VICE PRESIDENT / GENERAL MANAGER
WALT JOCKETTY

Walt Jocketty, who was named the Cardinals' vice president/general manager on October 14, 1994, is entering his 21st season in professional baseball. Before joining the Cardinals, he had been the Colorado Rockies' assistant general manager/player personnel.

Jocketty, 44, served for 10 seasons as the director of baseball administration for the Oakland A's before joining the Rockies in July 1993. He served the A's for a total of 14 years, beginning in March 1980, when he was hired by Charlie Finley as director of minor league operations and scouting. Jocketty was instrumental in overhauling the team's minor league system, which produced such standouts as Mark McGwire, Jose Canseco and Walt Weiss. Bolstered by their farm system, the A's won division titles in 1988, 1989, 1990 and 1992.

Jocketty, who also had five years of administrative experience with the Iowa Oaks, has an extensive background in baseball's financial matters, including player trades and contract negotiations.

He is a native of Minneapolis, MN, and earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Minnesota in 1974. He and his wife, Sue, have two children, Ashley and Joey.

VICE PRESIDENT / BUSINESS OPERATIONS
MARK GORRIS

Mark Gorris was named vice president of business operations on January 22, 1990. He is in charge of the club's various business activities, including ticket sales, broadcasting, promotions, community relations and office administration.

Gorris joined the Cardinals on January 1, 1987, after serving as manager of planning for Civic Center Corporation for two years. From 1982 to 1985, he worked for Busch Entertainment Corporation.

In December 1987, Gorris was named vice president of finance and administration, taking on responsibility for the club's financial and administrative functions, including the negotiating of Cardinals television contracts.

A native of St. Louis, Gorris received his bachelor's degree in business administration from Washington University and his master's degree in business from St. Louis University.

Gorris and his wife, Diane, are the parents of three children, Austin, Andrea and Alissa.

VICE PRESIDENT / MARKETING
MARTY HENDIN

Marty Hendin joined the Cardinals in May 1973 as assistant public relations director. He became promotions director in 1976 and was appointed director of marketing in 1984. In December 1987, Hendin was named vice president of marketing, taking charge of the Cardinals' advertising and licensing efforts. He also coordinates all on-field pregame activities.

Hendin is the Cardinals' liaison with Major League Baseball for national licensing and sponsorships. He also represents the N.L. Central Division on the Major League Baseball Properties Corporate Sponsor Advisory Committee.

A native St. Louisan and graduate of University City High School and the University of Missouri-St. Louis, Hendin is past president of the UMSL Alumni Association. He is a member of the board of directors of the Advertising Club of Greater St. Louis, the St. Louis Ambassadors, the Arthritis Foundation, the March of Dimes, and the St. Louis chapter of the Asthma and Allergy Foundation. He serves on the marketing committees of Downtown St. Louis Inc. and the St. Louis Symphony.

In 1987, Hendin was selected Ad Man of the Year by the Advertising Club of Greater St. Louis. He resides in west St. Louis County with his wife, Ronna, and son, Rob.

JERRY WALKER
DIRECTOR OF MAJOR LEAGUE PLAYER PERSONNEL

Jerry Walker, who was named the Cardinals' director of major league player personnel on November 23, 1994, serves as the Cardinals' chief evaluator of major league talent. He also will handle special assignment scouting tasks and work closely with Mike Jorgensen, the director of player development, and Marty Maier, the Cardinals' scouting director.

After retiring as a player in 1964, Walker managed for five years in the New York Yankees' farm system before turning his attention to scouting in 1973. He scouted for the Yankees until the middle of the 1981 season, when he was named the club's major league pitching coach. He later served as the Houston Astros' pitching coach from 1983-1986.

Walker returned to the scouting ranks in 1987, joining the Detroit Tigers as a special assignment scout. He was promoted to general manager in September 1991 and was responsible for overseeing all major and minor league operations. In April 1994, he joined the Toronto Blue Jays as a special assignment scout.

A former pitcher, Walker spent eight seasons in the majors with Baltimore (1957-60), Kansas City (1961-62) and Cleveland (1963-64). He was named to the American League All-Star team in 1959 at the age of 20, becoming the youngest player to ever start the mid-summer classic.

Walker, 56, a native of Ada, OK, and his wife, Janis, have two married daughters and four grandchildren.

BEHIND THE SCENES

TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. Stan London has been the Cardinals' head physician for the past 26 seasons, since his associate, Dr. I.C. Middleman, passed away in September 1968. The 68-year-old Springfield, IL, native received his M.D. degree from Washington University in 1949.

As a student at Washington University, Dr. London excelled in baseball and is widely regarded as the school's greatest basketball player ever. While studying for his doctorate, Dr. London coached the university's baseball team and served as assistant basketball coach.

He is a fellow for both the American Board of Surgeons and the American College of Surgeons, an assistant professor of surgery at Washington Medical, and a partner in Parkerest Surgical Associates.

Dr. London was the team physician for the St. Louis Hawks during the team's 11 seasons (1956-57 to 1966-67) in the National Basketball Association. He has tended to Cardinal baseball players' medical needs since 1956.

One of the area's top all-time amateur athletes, Dr. London is a member of the Springfield (Ill.) High School Hall of Fame, the Illinois Basketball Hall of Fame and was the first inductee to the Missouri Handball Hall of Fame. He also is a member of the Missouri Sports Medicine Hall of Fame.

Dr. London and his wife, Jackie, have three children and two grandchildren.

GENE GIESELMANN

Gene Gieselmann is in his 25th season as the Cardinals' head trainer. The 48-year-old Gieselmann has been a trainer in the organization since 1968, when he was appointed trainer at Class A St. Petersburg following his graduation from Wichita State University. The next season, he was named assistant trainer at the major league level, and in 1971, was appointed the Cardinals' head trainer.

Gieselmann was named a certified trainer by the National Athletic Association and is licensed by the state of Missouri in athletic training. He runs four clinics in the St. Louis area for the treatment of sports injuries.

During the 1986 off-season, Gieselmann was the trainer for the major league all-star team that toured Japan to play a seven-game series against a team of Japanese all-stars. He then traveled to Sydney, Australia, to serve as trainer for the Survival of the Fittest competition.

Gieselmann was trainer for the 1982, 1987 and 1993 National League All-Star teams and has been the event trainer for Superstars, Superteams and Battle of the Network Stars television programs. He is on the advisory board of the Missouri Humane Society.

Gieselmann and his wife, Roseanna, have one son, Johnathon.

BRAD HENDERSON
ASSISTANT TRAINER

Brad Henderson is entering his eighth season as the Cardinals' assistant trainer. The 33-year-old Henderson joined the Cardinals' training staff in May 1988 and has been a trainer in the organization since 1985.

Henderson, a native of Ballwin, MO, is a 1985 graduate of the University of Missouri. His first trainer's position was with Johnson City of the Appalachian League. He was head trainer at Arkansas (Texas League) before joining the major league club in 1988. Henderson has been a NATA member since 1986 and is licensed by the state of Missouri.

Henderson has worked with the training staffs of the St. Louis football Cardinals and the University of Missouri's football and baseball teams.

Henderson is married to the former Julie Lynn Rounkles. The couple have a son, Blake Andrew, and a daughter, Brooke Marie. Henderson spends the off-season assisting at trainer Gene Gieselmann's sports medicine clinics in the St. Louis area.

C.J. CHERRE
TRAVELING SECRETARY

C.J. Cherre is responsible for handling the Cardinals' travel and road accommodations, including all spring training arrangements at St. Petersburg.

Born in Norfolk, VA, and raised in St. Louis, Cherre is entering his 18th season with the club. He is a 1970 graduate of St. Louis University High School and received a bachelor's of arts degree (cum laude) from St. Louis University in 1974.

Cherre began his Cardinal career in the group sales department, where he worked in 1977 and '78. He was named assistant director of public relations in January 1979 and held the position through 1980. He assumed his current position in January 1981.

Cherre, an ardent Notre Dame supporter, enjoys swimming, country and contemporary music, and fine dining. He has a daughter, Laura (10).

BUDDY BATES
EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Buddy Bates is in his 13th season as the Cardinals' equipment manager. He succeeded Butch Yatkeman, who was with the Redbirds for 59 years until retiring after the 1982 season.

The 42-year-old St. Louis native joined the Cardinals in 1969, his first of three seasons as a bat boy. He was named assistant equipment manager and visiting clubhouse man in 1972, holding the positions until assuming his current role in 1983.

Bates is a graduate of Central St. Louis High School, where he lettered in basketball. He attended Florissant Valley Community College and the University of Missouri-St. Louis. In his spare time, Buddy is a big supporter of St. Louis University's basketball program and enjoys collecting Motown music.

RIP ROWAN
ASSISTANT EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Rip Rowan is entering his seventh season as the Cardinals' assistant equipment manager. Rowan, a native of St. Louis, has been associated with the Cardinals since 1978, when he served as the visitors' bat boy.

The 31-year-old Rowan graduated from Pattonville High School in 1982 and began assisting in the Cardinal clubhouse in 1983, following two seasons as bat boy. He enjoys watching sports and playing racquetball in his spare time. He and his wife, Dawn, have two children, Jessica and Jacob.

JERRY RISCH
VISITING CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Jerry Risch is in his 30th season with the Cardinals and his 12th season as visiting clubhouse manager.

The 42-year-old Risch began working for the Cardinals in 1966 as the umpires' room manager. In 1969 and 1970, he served as the Redbirds' bat boy. He began working as an assistant in the visitors' clubhouse in 1971 and was named to his current position in 1983.

Risch is a graduate of Southwest High School, where he lettered in soccer. He attended Meramec Community College and the University of Missouri-St. Louis. Risch and his wife, the former Mary Catherine Arnold, have two children, Jessica and Joseph. Risch enjoys trout fishing, photography and racquetball in his spare time.

JIM DONOHUE III
BULLPEN CATCHER

Jim Donohue III is entering his fourth full season as the Cardinals' bullpen catcher. Donohue played in the Phillies' organization for two years. He is the son of former pitcher Jim Donohue Jr., who played with the Angels, Tigers and Twins during his two major league seasons.

"Bones," 29, graduated in 1988 from Kansas State University, where he was a four-year letterman in baseball.

Donohue enjoys listening to country music and jazz. His hobbies include golf, skiing and horseback riding. He had acting roles in three television series, "Hardball", "Coach" and "ER", during this past off-season.

THE MANAGER

JOSEPH PAUL (JOE) TORRE (9)

Joe Torre is entering his fifth full season as the Cardinals' manager. Last season, the club's first in the newly formed N.L. Central Division, Torre guided the team to a third-place tie with a 53-61 record. Since leaving the California Angels' broadcast booth in August 1990 to return to managing, Torre has posted a 331-327 record in St. Louis, where he enjoyed six outstanding seasons as a player.

Torre first appeared in the major leagues with Milwaukee at the end of the 1960 season after winning the Northern League batting title (.344) in his first professional season. The next year, he batted .278 as the Braves' catcher and finished second to Billy Williams in voting for N.L. Rookie of the Year honors. In 1964, Torre became the first big-league catcher since 1955 to bat over .300, hit at least 20 home runs and drive in 100 or more runs, a feat he duplicated in 1966, when the Braves moved to Atlanta.

Torre introduced himself to the South by smacking the first regular-season home run at Atlanta's Fulton County Stadium on April 12. His 36 home runs that season remain the Braves' record for catchers.

The Cardinals acquired Torre in a trade for Orlando Cepeda on March 17, 1969. In 1971, Torre won the N.L. Most Valuable Player award, leading the league with a .363 average, 230 hits and 137 RBI. In six seasons as a Cardinal, Torre hit .308 and drove in 100 or more runs three times. He caught and played first and third base.

On October 13, 1974, the Cardinals traded Torre to the New York Mets for pitchers Ray Sadecki and Tommy Moore. Torre was named player-manager of the Mets on May 31, 1977, becoming the first N.L. player-manager since the Cardinals' Solly Hemus in 1959. His playing career ended only 18 days later, when Torre became a full-time manager. He retired with a .297 batting average, 2,342 hits and 1,185 RBI. He hit his 252nd and final home run as a pinch-hitter on April 13, 1977, off St. Louis' Clay Carroll.

Torre earned many honors as a player, including nine All-Star Game invitations. He was named to The Sporting News' All-Star team as a catcher from 1964-66 and won a Gold Glove in 1965. Torre also caught Warren Spahn's 300th career victory.

Torre spent five seasons as the Mets' manager. Hired to manage the Braves in 1982, he led Atlanta to its first division title since 1969 and was named the Associated Press Manager of the Year. He is the only person to have received both N.L. MVP and AP Manager of the Year honors.

Torre left the Braves after the 1984 season with an impressive 257-229 record. He spent the next six years as a television broadcaster for the California Angels.

On August 1, 1990, Torre was named manager of the Cardinals following Whitey Herzog's resignation.

Joe, 54, resides in St. Louis with his wife, Alice. Both are active in the Caring Program for Children. Joe has three children: Michael (30), Lauren (29) and Tina (26). Torre was born on 7/18/40 in Brooklyn, NY, and graduated from St. Francis Prep School in 1958. He is the brother of Frank Torre, a former first baseman with the Milwaukee Braves and Philadelphia Phillies.

THE COACHES

JOSE ROSARIO DOMEC CARDENAL (8)

Jose Cardenal is entering his second season as the Cardinals' first-base coach. He joined the organization on October 19,1993, after spending six seasons in the Cincinnati organization.

Cardenal also has served as an instructor in both the Chicago Cubs and Chicago White Sox organizations. He became the Reds' first-base coach in May 1993 after starting the year as a minor league base-running and outfield instructor.

Cardenal, 51, played for nine teams during a major league career that spanned 18 seasons, beginning in 1963 with San Francisco. The former outfielder also played with California, Cleveland, St. Louis (1970-71), Milwaukee, the Cubs, Philadelphia, the New York Mets and Kansas City. In 1970, his only full season in St. Louis, the center fielder ranked third among Cardinal regulars with a .293 average and 74 RBI. In 1980, he appeared in his only World Series with the Royals.

A native of Matanzas, Cuba, Jose makes his off-season home in Prospect Heights, IL. He is the cousin of former major leaguer Bert Campaneris.

CARROLL CHRISTOPHER "CHRIS" CHAMBLISS (10)

Chambliss joined the Cardinals' coaching ranks as hitting instructor in November 1992 after Don Baylor left to manage the Colorado Rockies.

A veteran of 16-plus seasons in the majors, Chambliss compiled a .279 career batting average, 185 home runs and 972 RBI in 2,173 games with Cleveland (1971-74), the New York Yankees (1974-79, 1988) and Atlanta (1980-86).

Chambliss was named the A.L. Rookie of the Year in 1971. In 1976, he was named to the A.L. All-Star team and helped the Yankees reach the World Series with a tie-breaking lead-off homer in the bottom of the ninth against Kansas City in Game Seven of the ALCS. He also played in the 1977 and 1978 World Series.

After serving as the Yankees' hitting instructor in 1988 following his retirement, Chambliss managed in the minor leagues from 1989 to 1992. He earned Eastern League Manager of the Year honors in 1990 at London, and Southern League Manager of the Year recognition in 1991 at Greenville. Chambliss managed at Richmond in 1992.

Chambliss, 46, is a 1966 graduate of Oceanside (CA) High School. He attended Mira Costa JC, UCLA and Montclair State College, where he received a degree in physical education and recreation. He is married to the former Audra Garvin and the couple have two children, Russell and Denair. Chambliss is the cousin of former NBA star Jo Jo White.

ROBERT GIBSON (45)

Bob Gibson, who earned distinction as one of baseball's fiercest competitors and most dominating pitchers of all time while starring for the Cardinals from 1959 to 1975, is entering his first season as a Cardinals coach.

Gibson, 59, will serve as an assistant to Manager Joe Torre and work in the bullpen. He formerly was a pitching coach under Torre for the New York Mets (1981) and Atlanta Braves (1982-84).

A winner of the N.L. Cy Young Award in 1968 and 1970, Gibson also earned league MVP honors in 1968, when he set a major league record for lowest ERA (1.12) for a pitcher with 300 or more innings. That June, he pitched five shutouts during the month, tying an N.L. record.

In World Series competition, few players compared with Gibson. He pitched a record eight consecutive complete games over the course of the 1964, 1967 and 1968 Series, winning seven games. His 35 strikeouts in the 1968 Series still stand as a record, as does his single-game mark of 17 strikeouts, established in the Series opener. He also holds the career mark for most games with 10 or more strikeouts (five).

Gibson was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1981. His career totals include a team-record 251 victories and 3,117 strikeouts. He fanned more than 200 batters in nine seasons, won nine Gold Gloves and was a nine-time N.L. All-Star. His uniform number 45 is one of six to be retired by the Cardinals.

Gibson recently authored his autobiography, "Stranger To The Game." He and his wife, Wendy, make their home in Bellevue, NE.

GAYLEN RICHARD PITTS (4)

Gaylen Pitts is entering his fifth season as a Cardinals coach and his 15th season as a coach or manager in the organization. He will coach third base in 1995 after serving as the Cardinals' bullpen coach the last four seasons. He was named to Joe Torre's coaching staff in October 1990.

Pitts has managed at Arkansas (1981-82, 89), Savannah (1985), Springfield (1986-87), Johnson City (1988) and Louisville (1990), where he also coached in 1983-84. He managed the Oakland A's Modesto club in 1978-79. Pitts was named Texas League Manager of the Year in 1989, when he led Arkansas to the league championship. He also guided Springfield to back-to-back division titles in 1986 and 1987.

Pitts was signed by the Cardinals in 1964 out of Mountain Home High School in Arkansas, where he lettered in baseball and football. He was an infielder in the Cardinals' system until 1971. Pitts played 28 games at the major league level with Oakland in 1974-75.

Pitts, 48, resides in Columbia, IL, with his wife, Julia, and son Travis Ray (8-8-87). In his spare time, he enjoys trout fishing, snow- and water-skiing, and racquetball.

ALBERT FRED "RED" SCHOENDIENST (2)

Schoendienst has been involved in professional baseball for the past 53 seasons. He coached in St. Louis from 1961-64 under Manager Johnny Keane and in 1965 began a 12-year stint as Cardinals manager, the longest tenure in club history. He managed the Cardinals to a World Series championship in 1967 and a National League pennant in 1968. He also served as interim manager of the Redbirds in 1980 and 1990, and coached for the Oakland A's in 1977 and '78.

As a player, Schoendienst appeared with the Cardinals in 15 seasons, mostly as their second baseman. He played in three World Series: in 1946 with the Cardinals and in 1957 and 1958 with Milwaukee. He was chosen to 10 N.L. All-Star Game squads, and in 1950 cracked a game-winning home run in the 14th inning. He also managed the National League to victories in 1968 and 1969.

In 1989, Schoendienst was paid baseball's ultimate compliment with induction into the Hall of Fame. During his career, he collected 2,449 hits, including a league-high 200 in 1957, batted .289, and tied or led the league in fielding at his position seven times.

Schoendienst was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame on November 7, 1987. During his playing days, he also participated with the Budweiser National Bowling team.

"Red" was born on February 2, 1923, at Germantown, IL, and is married to the former Mary Eileen O'Reilly. They have four married children: Colleen (6/23/51), Cathleen (10/16/52), Eileen (3/19/57) and Kevin (11/3/58).

MARK RIGGINS (12)

Mark Riggins is entering his first season as the Cardinals' pitching coach and his 12th season in the organization. He spent the last five seasons as the pitching coach at Louisville.

The 38-year-old Riggins began his coaching career in 1984 with Johnson City, moved to St. Petersburg in 1985, to Arkansas in 1986, to Springfield in 1987 and back to St. Petersburg in 1988. He spent the 1989 season as the Cardinals' roving minor league pitching instructor before joining Louisville in 1990.

Riggins pitched in the Cardinals' system for five seasons with Gastonia, St. Petersburg, Arkansas and Louisville. He also played on loan for Baltimore's Charlotte club for part of the 1983 season.

Riggins is a graduate of Loogootee High School in Indiana and earned a bachelor's degree in agricultural business in 1979 from Murray State University, where he was a three-year all-conference pitcher. He makes his off-season home in Louisville, KY, with wife, Tammie, and daughter, Chelsea Lee.

LOUIS CLARK BROCK (20)
SPECIAL INSTRUCTOR

Lou Brock, named as a special instructor on December 9, 1994, will assist with base-running and outfield instruction during spring training and periodically throughout the season. He served as a base-running consultant for Montreal in 1993, Los Angeles in 1988 and Minnesota in 1987; all three clubs increased their stolen base totals over the previous season.

Brock, 55, is the National League's all-time leader with 938 stolen bases, including an N.L.-record 118 thefts in 1974. He established a major league record with 12 seasons of 50 or more steals (1965-76) and led the league in steals eight times. He was the first player to steal at least 50 bases and hit 20 homers in the same season, posting a 21-homer, 52-steals campaign in 1967. His 3,023 hits rank 17th on the all-time list.

While teammate Bob Gibson served as the pitching linchpin in the 1964, 1967 and 1968 World Series, Brock was the club's offensive catalyst. He established major league records for highest career batting average (.391) and most stolen bases in a single Series (seven, in 1967 and 1968).

In 1985, Brock was inducted into the Hall of Fame.

Since the end of his playing career, Brock has been involved in many marketing and promotional ventures. He is the founder and president of Brockworld Products. He also worked in the Cardinals' broadcast booth from 1981 to 1984.

1994 SEASON: Started at four different positions for the Athletics as he continued his "Super Sub" role...overall, started a total of 58 games, 24 at catcher, 24 at 2B, 6 at 3B and 4 at 1B...was A's starter at second base for 15 of the final 24 games following injury to Brent Gates...also played two games in the outfield and had 6 pinch-running and 5 pinch-hitting appearances...caught a total of 239 innings and threw out 7 of 18 (39%) attempted basestealers...opened the season 0-for-22, but broke the drought with a single on 4/24 at NYY...went on a hot streak and collected 25 hits in his next 81 at-bats (.309)...hit .310 in the month of May, but July was his best overall month as he hit .269 with three doubles, two homers and nine RBIs...had a streak of five games, 7/22-29, where he knocked in 8 runs...hit a 3-run homer with two out in bottom of the 8th on 7/24 vs BAL to tie game at 6-6...the homer capped a 6-run comeback by the A's and they went on to a 7-6 win...hit 2 of his 3 HR's and had 6 RBIs vs the Orioles...at .316 (6-for-19) was one of the top hitters on the club with two out and RISP...was 3-for-4 with 7 RBIs when batting with the bases loaded.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: 1986 – After being the A's first-round selection in the June free-agent draft, began his pro career at single-A Madison of the Midwest League...wasted no time showing why he was the A's top pick...batted .306 in 22 games for the Muskies...also added 13 RBIs and 9 runs scored. 1987 – Spent some time in the A's major league camp...split the year between Madison and Huntsville...got off to a hot start at Madison, hitting .333 in his first 10 games with 4 homers and 17 RBIs...in 90 games, finished at .289 with 8 homers and 52 RBIs...also added 27 steals...named 9th best prospect in the Midwest League, by Baseball America...promoted to Huntsville on 7/15...struggled at the plate, hitting .182 in 33 games. 1988 – First full year at AA Huntsville...made the switch from catcher to third base and was fine defensively but had a tough time at the plate...led the club with his 22 doubles and his 9 homers ranked 2nd on the Stars...also added 29 steals. 1989 – Second consecutive full season at AA Huntsville, but by September had earned his first promotion to the majors...played in four Sept. games for the A's, all in pinch-running roles...at Huntsville, finished 2nd in the league in runs scored (89) and tied for 4th in steals (45)...also raised his BA by 45 pts...spent most of his time at third base (106 games), but also put some time in at catcher (32 games). 1990 – Spent the majority of the season in Tacoma, but did have an 11-day stint with the A's in July...made his second position switch since being drafted as a catcher...was moved to second base at Tacoma...early part of season was disrupted when he fractured the hook of the hamate bone in his left hand on 5/17...he eventually needed surgery in mid-September to correct the fracture...appeared in 7 games and made three starts, all at third base, following his recall on 7/18...also appeared in one game at 2B...went 0-for-first 10 before picking up his first ML hit 7/24 off the Angels' Jim Abbott...recorded one more hit before returning to Tacoma on 7/27...finished the year at Tacoma batting .243 in 72 games. 1991 – Bounced between the A's and Tacoma four seperate times in 1991...was first brought up on 4/16 but made just four appearances and was sent back down on 4/27...was up and down twice more in June and July before he was recalled a fourth and final time on 8/31...saw his most extensive duty of the year in Sept./Oct. when he saw action in 11 games including his first ML appearance behind the plate...caught in eight games with two starts...stole his first base on 10/5 at TEX. 1992 – Started the year in Oakland but was placed on the 15-day disabled list on 5/10 with a left rib cage pull..was sent on rehab assignment to AA Huntsville on 6/5...hit .333 with 2 RBIs over 9 games with the Stars...returned to the DL on 6/15 and was moved to the 60-day DL on 6/30...sent on rehab to Tacoma on 7/17...returned to Oakland on 7/25...was claimed on waivers by the White Sox on 8/16...started twice with the ChiSox, once in LF and once at DH...also appeared at third and catcher. 1993 – Was reacquired on 3/29 from the White Sox via the waiver wire and was the A's backup catcher...played the entire season at the major league level...saw most of his playing time in the second half of the season following an injury to Terry Steinbach...up to the break had appeared in 57 games with 149 at-bats and hit .282 with all 6 of his homers and 22 of his 26 RBIs...threw out 34% (26/76) of runners attempting to steal...set a franchise record for steals by a catcher with 13...he totaled 14 steals in 19 attempts for the year, but one was as a pinch-runner...was the only major league catcher in 1993 to start games in the leadoff spot...made two starts as the A's leadoff man...hit .308 for the month of July with his first ML homer and 9 RBIs in 17 games...the homer came at CLE on 7/21, a three-run shot off the Tribe's Wertz...finished the night with a career-high 5 RBIs...did his best hitting of the season in Sept. as he finished the month with a .345 BA (20-58), 2 HRs and 7 RBIs...had a career-best 10-game hitting streak 9/12-22, which included his first 4-hit game, 9/21 vs KC...pulled a groin muscle on 9/24 and sat out the final seven games of the season.

MISC: Graduated from Dunedin (Fla.) H.S. in 1983...attended University of South Florida in Tampa for three years, the same school that A's manager Tony LaRussa received his undergraduate degree from...was signed to Sporting News College All-America team in 1986...signed by A's scout Bill Gayton...Scott and his wife, Myra, reside in Dunedin, Fla...name is pronounced HEE-mond.

OSBORNE EARL SMITH

Shortstop

Ht: 5-10 Bats: Both
Wt: 170 Throws: Right

Age: 40
Born: 12-26-54 at Mobile, Alabama

BECAME CARDINAL: Acquired from the San Diego Padres in a trade for shortstop Garry Templeton, February 11, 1982.

M.L. SERVICE: 16.131

1994 SEASON: After a slow start, Oz finished with a torrid stretch at the plate, complementing it all with league-leading defense at short...was consistent from both sides of the plate, batting .262 vs. LHP and .263 vs. RHP...collected 100 hits, joining Eddie Murray as the only active players with 17 straight 100-hit seasons...hit in 20 of last 22 games, raising average from .231 to .262 (33-91; .363)...batted .417 after 7/29...19 of his 24 extra-base hits came after June 1...batted only .186 through 5/9...homered in consecutive games for first time in career, 5/13-14 at MTL...his round-tripper 5/14 off Ken Hill was just his third of career batting left-handed...collected 750th career RBI, had three hits and homered 6/3 vs. SF...had season-high four hits 8/10 at FLA...led the club with 10 sacrifice hits and tied for high (with Whiten) with11 infield hits...struck out only once every 16.7 plate appearances, the fourth-best mark in the N.L....has made 2,041 consecutive starts (since 5/22/80) without striking out more than twice in a game, the longest current streak in the majors...was league's fifth most difficult to double up (1 DP / 127 ABs)...finished with six steals, ending streak of 16 straight 20-steal seasons...batted .294 on artificial turf and .284 at Busch...led N.L. shortstops in fielding for eighth time with a .982 average (eight errors in 434 chances)...became all-time assist leader at short on 7/14, surpassing Luis Aparicio (8,016)...is one of four players with more than 8,000 assists...ranked fourth on club with 28 multi-hit games...was N.L.'s top vote-getter for All-Star Game, making his 13th appearance...needs 115 total chances and 27 double-plays to tie Aparicio's all-time records of 12,564 chances and 1,553 DPs for shortstops.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS : 1977 – Selected by San Diego in fourth round of June free-agent draft and signed by Padres' scouts Cliff Ditto and Bob Fontaine...led Northwest League shortstops in assists (254), double plays (40) and fielding pct. (.943)...led loop in stolen bases with 30...during the off-season caught the eye of Padres brass with .323 avg. in Arizona Instructional League. 1978 – Became SD regular shortstop after only 68 games in the minor leagues...played in 159 games, leading the league in sacrifice hits with 28 and finishing 4th in stolen bases with 40...was runner-up to Atlanta's Bob Horner for Rookie of the Year honors. 1979 – Led N.L. shortstops with 555 assists...was League's 5th toughest hitter to fan (1 every 17.54 AB). 1980 – Capped a sensational defensive season at shortstop by winning his first Gold Glove after setting a new major league record for assists by a shortstop...set the new mark 9/26 vs LA when he surpassed a mark Pittsburgh's Glenn Wright had established in 1924. Wright's mark was 601 assists and Oz finished the season with 621...also participated in more double plays than any other N.L. shortstop...may have set the stage for his season by handling 16 total chances, including 12 assists, 4/12 vs SF...joined with Gene Richards and Jerry Mumphrey to become the first trio in N.L. history to all steal 50 bases in same season – Smith (57), Richards (61), Mumphrey (52)...led league with 23 sacrifice hits. 1981 – Played in all 110 games, tying for N.L. high...league leader in at-bats with 450...led N.L. shortstops in assists, total chances and fielding pct. 1982 – Was the N.L.'s best shortstop on a percentage basis, won his third straight Gold Glove and led the league in assists for the fourth straight year...984 fielding percentage is a Cardinal season record for a shortstop...not only did he maintain his level of performance on the field, but Ozzie also emerged as a solid hitter after working with Cardinal coaches at spring training on developing his swing to take advantage of Busch's artificial turf...after missing only 13 games in his first four major league seasons, Smith was sidelined for 18 days late in the year due to a hematoma of his right thigh...Smith set a 7-game World Series record for most putouts by a shortstop with 22. In 1982 Smith maintained his level of near perfect performances in the field; his .976 fielding percentage was best in the league...led the National League in chances with 658 and in games played with 110...was named one of St. Louis' Baseball Men of the Year by the local BBWAA Chapter...voted to UPI and

Sporting News post-season All-Star team. 1983 – Was the league's best shortstop in terms of putouts and total chances even though for the first time in five years he was edged out of the lead in the assist category, finished behind Houston's Dickie Thon...led the 1983 Cardinals in games played, was second in sacrifice hits and walks and third in doubles, triples, stolen bases and game-winning RBI. 1984 – Was recognized as the National League's premier shortstop on A.P., U.P.I., and The Sporting News post-season teams, and for the second consecutive season was voted the N.L.'s starting shortstop on the All-Star team...did not win this wide acclaim on past reputation either, he earned it on the field, leading the N.L. in fielding pct. (.982), while committing a career low 12 errors...also sparked the Cardinals with his bat and speed, his .314 mark from the right side of the plate was tops in his career and his 11 sacrifices led the team. On the basepaths, Ozzie was one of the league's most successful thieves making good on 35 of 42 stolen base attempts, a success rate of 83...was also one of the most difficult players to strikeout, averaging a strikeout only every 28.5 plate appearances...missed a month of the season when he was hit by a Ed Whitson pitch 7/13 that fractured the ulna bone in his right wrist. Returned from the disabled list 8/20 in grand fashion going 2-for-4 (double, triple)...thrilled opening night crowd with his traditional season opening pre-game backflip, and then closed the evening's festivities with a three-run homer to defeat PIT, 4-1...finished 10th in N.L. stolen bases (35). 1985 – Prior to home opener, 4/15, Cardinals end weeks of trade rumors and speculation by signing Smith to a four year contract extension. Ozzie pays immediate dividend on Redbird investment with 2-for-3 outing in opener and his first home run of season...goes through month of April flawless at shortstop, does not commit first error of season until 5/4...on 6/20, appearing to be a shoe-in for selection to third straight starting assignment at the All-Star Game, Ozzie vows to raise his batting average which stands at .242 before the mid-summer classic. He meets goal by hitting in 19 of next 22 games (22-for-75; .427), raising his average to .290 at the All-Star Break. In the All-Star Game, Smith is the only N.L. player to play the entire game. Six homers on season raises career total to 13, with all 13 coming from the right side of the plate for the switch-hitter...continues to be among the leagues toughest batters to strikeout with only 27 Ks in 615 plate appearances—one every 22.7 times...started 158 games at shortstop...tops N.L. shortstops in putouts, assists, total chances and fielding pct....ties major league record held by Owen Busch and Don Kessinger for most seasons (6) with 500 or more assists 1978, '79, '80, '82, '83, '85...ties Michael Doolan's N.L. record for years leading league in assists (5)...has at least one hit in each of 6 L.C.S. games...hits first left-handed home run in 3,009 professional at-bats off Tom Niedenfuer in ninth inning of Game 5 giving St. Louis a 3-2 win...named Most Valuable Player of National League Championship Series...post-season awards included sixth consecutive Gold Glove Award at short and selection on Sporting News and UPI N.L. All-Star teams. 1986 – Was the Cardinals' most consistent player leading the team's regulars with a career high .280 average and winning his 7th straight Gold Glove for fielding excellence at shortstop...in four plate appearances on 5/1 at SD had a single, double, two walks, stole three bases and scored all three of the Cardinals runs in a 4-3 loss to Padres...had a nine-game hitting streak (11-for-34; .324) from 5/3-14...notched seventh career four-hit game on 6/2 at HOU...set a personal record with 48-game errorless streak from 7/23-9/15...stole his 150th base as a Cardinal, 8/12 at MTL...scored a run in eight straight games from 8/30-9/7...on 9/7 at HOU played his 701st game at shortstop for St. Louis moving into third place on Cards all-time games played by shortstop list behind Dal Maxvill (1054) and Marty Marion (1492)...that day also stole 300th career base...had hit in 9 of last 10 games (15-for-30; .500) from 9/24-10/5...Smith's fine season was recognized in a number of ways...received the fourth highest number of votes in fan balloting for All-Star game and made his fourth straight start...named shortstop on The Sporting News and U.P.I. post-season N.L. All-Star teams...was club leader in average, hits and walks...tied career high in RBI and had career bests in average and walks...was sixth in N.L. in walks and seventh in on-base pct. (.376)...was again toughest batter in league to strikeout (1 in 19.4 AB)...was on-base by hit or walk in 119 of 144 (83) starts...was 31 of 38 (82) in steal attempts, tied for seventh best success rate in N.L....marked fifth straight season with 25 or more steals...led N.L. shortstops for third straight year in fielding pct. (.978) and tied for loop lead in double plays (96). 1987 – In his 10th season of Major League play, Ozzie posted numbers that earned him strong consideration among MVP candidates...finished runner-up in the voting for N.L. MVP and his point total was the highest by a N.L. shortstop since Maury Wills won the MVP Award in 1962...undertook extensive off-season conditioning program that gave him added bulk and endurance...after a slow start caused by a sprained ankle suffered in early April, Ozzie raised his average from .172 to .291 (48-for-143; .336) during the course of 36 games...reached the .300 mark in batting for the first time in his career with a .303 mark...his 75 RBI without hitting a homer were the most by a Cardinal since Milt Stock's 76 RBI without a homer in 1920...the 75 RBI surpassed his previous season high of 54 RBI in 1985 and '86...finished third in the N.L. in hits (182), tied for second in doubles (40), first in sacrifice bunts (12) and was among league leaders in average (.303), stolen bases (43) and walks (89)...his 182 hits and 40 doubles were career bests...the 40 doubles were the most by a St. Louis shortstop since Dick Groat had 43 in 1963...hit his 200th career double on 7/23 at LA...was top vote-getter in fan balloting for the All-Star game with 1,215,183 votes...he was the first Cardinal player to ever receive the top vote honors...made his fifth straight start and seventh appearance in the All-Star contest...Ozzie's 10 errors equalled his career low for fewest errors in a season...his 43 stolen bases were second on the club to Vince Coleman's M.L. high 109...they were also the most for the "Wizard" since he became a Cardinal (had 35 in 1984) and are the most ever by a Cards shortstop...had a career best 9 GWRBI and batted .273 (47-for-172) with runners in scoring position...his 158 games were second to Terry Pendleton's 159...scored 100 runs for the first time in his career with 104 tallies...Ozzie had a better batting average on grass (.317) than he did on artificial turf (.298)...was second on the club with 25 infield hits...had 51 multiple hit games including two 4-hit contests...32 of Ozzie's 75 RBI scored Vince Coleman...scored a run in 12 of 13 games from 5/16-5/30...was named to The Sporting News and UPI National League All-Star teams...was named to The Sporting News Silver Slugger team for the first time in his career...ranked 6th among N.L. base thiefs with a .827 stolen base pct...struck out just once every 16.67 at-bats which was 4th among National Leaguers...was rated best defensive infielder and bunter in the NL in a poll of major league managers...won his eighth straight Gold Glove Award...led National League shortstops in fielding percentage (.987 – career best), games (158), assists (516), total chances (771) and double plays (111)...set major league record for most years with 500 or more assists by a shortstop with 7...his .987 fielding pct. equalled Larry Bowa for highest fielding average (season) in NL history for a shortstop with 150 or more games played...played 33 consecutive errorless games from 8/3-9/7...had a season-high 11 assists on 8/13 vs PHI...reached base safely in 5 of 7 World Series games...had two stolen bases in W.S. Game #5...was 6-for-19; .316 batting left-handed during the Series...was one of 5 Cardinals to appear in all 14 post-season games. 1988 – Completed his 11th big league season and 7th as a Cardinal...saw offensive production slip for the first time in four seasons, yet still bested his career average in several categories...led the club in games (153), runs (80) and doubles (27)...equalled career-high with 57 stolen bases and set single-season high for stolen bases by a Redbird shortstop...moved into third on Cards' all-time stolen base list (256)...became just the 5th player in Cardinal history to steal 50 bases...has 20-plus steals in each of the last 11 seasons (longest current streak in NL)...finished 3rd in NL in stolen bases and had 5th best stolen base pct. OZZIE'S FAVORITE DEFENSIVE PLAYS

	Date	Situation	Defensive Gem
1.	4/20/78 vs ATL	4th Inning, 2 Out	Jeff Burroughs hits ground ball up middle. As Ozzie dives to left, ball caroms into air. Ozzie reaches high, grabs ball bare-handed, throws Burroughs out at first.
2.	8/4/86 vs PHI	9th Inning, 1 Out	Von Hayes hits shallow fly to left field. Outfielder dives headfirst toward infield. Ozzie dives headlong toward outfield and makes basket catch in midair.
3.	8/6/86 vs PHI	3rd Inning, 1 Out, 1 On	With Ronn Reynolds running from second on play, Gary Redus hits infield single to deep short. Instead of throwing to first, Ozzie throws behind Reynolds, who is tagged out after rounding third base.

CARDINALS WORLD SERIES STORY

1926 The Cardinals defeated the Yankees, four games to three, to win their first world championship. Veteran 39-year-old right-hander Grover Cleveland Alexander, obtained by the Redbirds in a midseason trade with the Chicago Cubs, won the second and sixth games, then came on to save the seventh.

1928 Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig paced the Yankees to a four-game sweep of the Cardinals. Ruth batted .625 for the Series and hit three home runs in one game, and Gehrig batted .545 with nine runs batted in. Four of Gehrig's six hits were home runs.

1930 Connie Mack's Philadelphia Athletics defeated the Cardinals, four games to two, as the Redbirds hit only .200 and the Athletics .197. Cardinal victories were pitched by Bill Hallahan, 5-0, in the third game, and Jesse Haines, 3-1, in the fourth.

1931 The Cardinals got revenge against the Athletics, defeating them four games to three. Pepper Martin, the Wild Horse of the Osage, paced the Redbirds, stealing five bases, collecting 12 hits and hitting .500. Bill Hallahan and Burleigh Grimes each pitched two victories for the Cardinals.

1934 The "Gas House Gang" won the National League pennant on the final day of the season, then defeated Detroit in the Series, four games to three. Dizzy and Paul Dean, who combined to win 49 games during the regular season, each won two games over the Tigers. The final game of the Series, won by the Cardinals, 11-0, was marked by Commissioner Kenesaw Landis' order to eject Joe (Ducky) Medwick from the game. Medwick had slid hard into Tigers third baseman Marv Owen in the sixth inning, so infuriating Detroit fans that they bombarded Medwick with fruit, vegetables and debris when he took his position in left field in the bottom of the inning. Landis removed Medwick to halt the disturbance.

1942 The Cardinals lost the first game of the Series to the Yankees, then roared back to win four straight. Rookie pitcher Johnny Beazley won two games, lefthander Ernie White shut out the Yankees in the third game, and third baseman Whitey Kurowski belted an RBI-triple in the second game and a two-run, ninth-inning homer to clinch the finale.

1943 The Yankees evened their World Series record against the Cardinals at 2-2 by defeating the Redbirds in five games. The turning point of the Series occurred in the third game. With the Cardinals holding a 2-1 lead in the eighth inning, Johnny Lindell crashed into Whitey Kurowski at third on pinch-hitter George Stirnweiss' sacrifice bunt and jarred the ball loose from Kurowski's hand. After a fly out and an intentional walk, Billy Johnson's triple drove home three runs, igniting a five-run inning and a 6-2 Yankee victory. Manager Joe McCarthy's team won the next two games, 2-1 and 2-0, to take the championship.

1944 In this only all-St. Louis World Series, pitching dominated as the Cardinals defeated the Browns, four games to two. The two teams combined to strike out a six-game Series-record 92 batters, 49 by Cardinal pitchers and 43 by Browns hurlers. Emil Verban topped Cardinal hitters with a .412 average.

1946 Harry (The Cat) Brecheen won three games and the Cardinals topped the Boston Red Sox, four games to three. With the score tied 3-3 in the bottom of the eighth inning of the seventh game, Enos Slaughter singled, then scored all the way from first on Harry Walker's double to left-center, a sprint that surprised Red Sox relay man Johnny Pesky, whose moment's hesitation allowed Slaughter to score the winning run.

1964 A team victory for the Cardinals, who defeated the Yankees, four games to three. Bob Gibson won two games; Ken Boyer hit a grand slam to win the fourth game; Tim McCarver, who batted a Series-high .478, smashed a 10th-inning home run to win the fifth game; and Ron Taylor and Roger Craig combined for 9.2 scoreless innings of relief.

1967 Bob Gibson pitched three complete-game victories and Lou Brock put on one of the finest offensive displays in World Series history as the Cardinals defeated the Boston Red Sox, four games to three. Gibson limited the Red Sox to only 14 hits in three games, and Brock topped all Series hitters with a .414 batting average. Lou also set a Series record by stealing seven bases, and Roger Maris hit .385 and drove in seven runs.

1968 The Cardinals led three games to one, but the Detroit Tigers rallied to win the last three contests and claim their first world championship since 1945. Left-hander Mickey Lolich, who pitched all season in the shadow of 31-game winner Denny McLain, was superb for the Tigers as he won three games, including the 4-1 finale. Bob Gibson won two games for the Redbirds and set Series records by striking out 17 batters in Game One and 35 in the Series, breaking the mark of 31 he set against the Yankees in 1964. Lou Brock batted .464 and stole seven bases.

1982 The Cardinals rallied from a 3-2 deficit in games to defeat the Milwaukee Brewers and bring the World Series Championship trophy back to St. Louis for the first time in 15 years. Joaquin Andujar nailed down two victories and posted a 1.35 ERA while reliever Bruce Sutter posted a win and two saves. John Stuper became only the 14th rookie to start two World Series games, winning the crucial sixth game, a rain-delayed contest that took five hours to complete. Dane Iorg batted .529 and tied a Series record for most hits by a designated hitter. Rookie Willie McGee turned heads by hitting two home runs and making two spectacular catches in one game. Catcher Darrell Porter was named the Series MVP on the strength of his clutch hitting and solid defense.

1985 The Cardinals won the National League Championship Series after losing the first two games to the Los Angeles Dodgers, then winning four straight, including the decisive sixth game on Jack Clark's three-run, ninth-inning homer. In the World Series, they won the first two games at Kansas City, then lost four of the next five games behind an offense that batted only .185 for the Series. John Tudor and Todd Worrell pitched the Cardinals to victory in Game One, and Terry Pendleton's ninth-inning, bases-loaded double sparked a 4-2 victory the next day. Kansas City won its first game, 6-1, behind Brett Saberhagen's pitching, then lost Game Four to Tudor, 3-0. Danny Jackson stopped the Redbirds, 6-1, in the fifth game, although Worrell tied a Series record by striking out six consecutive batters in two innings of relief. The pivotal moment of the Series occurred in the ninth inning of Game Six, with the Cardinals leading, 1-0. After Kansas City leadoff man Jorge Orta reached first on a disputed call by an umpire and Steve Balboni singled after his catchable pop-up fell safely in foul territory, former Cardinal pinch-hitter Dane Iorg stroked a one-out, two-run single for a 2-1 Royals victory. Game Seven was no contest, an 11-0 Royals victory.

1987 After coming back from a 3-2 deficit in games to win the National League Championship Series against San Francisco, the Cardinals lost their first two games of the World Series at Minnesota. Returning to Busch Stadium for Game Three, the Redbirds used a three-run seventh and strong pitching by John Tudor to cut the deficit to 2-1. The next night, utility infielder Tom Lawless, who was filling in for injured third baseman Terry Pendleton, led the Cards to a 7-2 win with a three-run homer in the fourth. The round-tripper was just the second for Lawless at the major league level. The Cardinals completed their sweep at home with a 4-2 win in Game Five. Vince Coleman and Ozzie Smith each stole two bases, and Todd Worrell earned his second save of the Series in relief of winner Danny Cox. In Game Six, the Cardinals took a 5-2 lead into the fifth inning, but homers by Don Baylor and Kent Hrbek carried the Twins to an 11-5 victory. In the decisive seventh game, Series MVP Frank Viola allowed only two runs and Greg Gagne broke a 2-2 sixth-inning tie with an infield single, giving Minnesota a 4-2 victory and its first-ever World Series title. The Series was the first in which the home team won each of the seven games.

CARDINALS HISTORICAL / SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

1876 St. Louis became a charter member of the National League, then withdrew after the 1877 season.

1892 St. Louis rejoined the N.L. as the Browns, later becoming the Perfectos.

1899 The team changed its name from Perfectos to Cardinals.

1920 The team moved from Robison Field to Sportsman's Park.

1922 Rogers Hornsby won the Triple Crown with 42 home runs, 152 RBI and a .401 batting average.

1924 Hornsby won the batting title with a .424 average, the highest mark in the National League since 1900.

1925 Hornsby won his second Triple Crown with 39 home runs, 143 RBI and a .403 average.

1937 Joe (Ducky) Medwick won the Triple Crown with 31 home runs, 154 RBI and a .374 batting average.

1940 First night games in St. Louis for the Browns and then Cardinals. Johnny Mize hit a club-record 43 home runs.

1946 Home paid attendance topped 1 million for the first time.

1948 Stan Musial won his third N.L. Most Valuable Player award and led the league in nearly every batting department — average (.376); runs (135); hits (230); total bases (429); doubles (46); triples (18); runs batted in (131); and slugging percentage (.702).

1950 The Cardinals played their first night opener in St. Louis.

1953 Anheuser-Busch, Inc., bought the Cardinals, renovated Sportsman's Park and renamed it Busch Stadium.

1954 Musial hit five home runs in a May 2 double-header against the Giants at Busch Stadium.

1957 Musial established a National League endurance record by extending his streak of consecutive games played to 895 before an injury forced him to the bench. The mishap occurred at Philadelphia on August 22, when he tore a muscle and chipped a bone in his shoulder blade as he swung at and missed a high, outside pitch. He won the batting title with a .351 average.

1958 Musial, pinch-hitting in the sixth inning, doubled against the Cubs at Wrigley Field on May 13 to collect his 3,000th career hit.

1962 Musial, nearing his 42nd birthday, made a bid for his eighth batting title by hitting .330, but Tommy Davis of the Los Angeles Dodgers won the crown with a .346 mark.

1963 Musial, who won seven National League batting titles in his 22-year career with the Cardinals and had a lifetime average of .331, announced his retirement. His famous No. 6 became the first Cardinal number to be retired.

1966 The Cardinals closed old Busch Stadium on May 8 with a 10-5 loss to the San Francisco Giants. On May 12, they opened the new Busch Memorial Stadium in downtown St. Louis by defeating the Atlanta Braves, 4-3, in 12 innings. The winning run scored when Lou Brock singled with the bases loaded, driving in Curt Flood. The winning pitcher was Don Dennis, the loser Phil Niekro. Mike Shannon got the first Cardinal hit, a first-inning single, and Atlanta's Felipe Alou hit two home runs. The Cardinals also hosted the All-Star Game.

1967 Home paid attendance topped 2 million for the first time.

1968 Bob Gibson had a 22-9 record, hurled 13 shutouts, had a 15-game winning streak and allowed only 38 earned runs in 304 innings for a 1.12 ERA, a major league record for a pitcher who worked more than 300 innings. He set a World Series strikeout record with 17 in the first game against Detroit. His remarkable season earned him the National League's Cy Young and Most Valuable Player awards.

1969 On September 15 against the New York Mets, Steve Carlton struck out 19 batters, a major league record at that time. However, he lost the game, 4-3, as Ron Swoboda hit a pair of two-run homers. Carlton struck out at least one man in every inning and fanned the side in four different frames. The playing surface at Busch Stadium was changed from grass to artificial turf.

1970 Gibson had a 23-7 record and received his second N.L. Cy Young Award.

1971 Joe Torre won the N.L. batting title with a .363 average and was named league MVP. Gibson pitched his only career no-hitter, an 11-0 victory over the Pirates on August 14. Red Schoendienst established a longevity record for Cardinal managers, completing his seventh season. Lou Brock became the first major league player to steal 50 or more bases in seven consecutive years.

1972 Gibson extends his major league record for most season 200 or more strikeouts to nine. Gibson sets National League record with his 2,786th strikeout, the most lifetime for a right-handed pitcher. Brock extends his record for most consecutive season, 50 or more stolen bases to 8. Cardinals draw 50,000,000th fan since 1900.

1973 Brock steals his 600th base and moves into 9th place on the all-time list. Brock sets major league record for stealing 50 or more bases for 9 consecutive years. Gibson moves into second place on all-time strikeout list. Torre gets his 2000th hit and 1000th RBI.

1974 Brock steals 118 bases to break Maury Wills' one-season mark and Max Carey's National League career record. Lou moves from ninth to second on major league's all -time career stolen base list. Bob Gibson strikes out the 3,000th batter of his career to become only the second pitcher in baseball history to reach that figure. The Cardinals draw more than 1,800,000, the third highest home attendance in their history. Red Birds and Mets play 25 inning game, the longest night game in major league history and the longest game ever played to conclusion. Cardinals win as Bake McBride scores from first on two errors. McBride named "Rookie Of The Year."

1975 Lou Brock gets 2500th hit and 800th stolen base of his career. Bob Gibson retires after 17-year Cardinal career and 251 victories. Gibby is honored by SRO crowd on Bob Gibson Day. Jacket Day turnout of 50,548 is largest regular season crowd in St. Louis baseball history. Hrabosky compiles 13 wins and 22 saves and is named "Fireman of the Year." Ted Simmons finishes second in league batting race with .332 average.

1976 John Denny wins National League ERA title at age 23, tying youngest right-hander to win ERA title in N.L. Lou Brock gets 2700th hit of his career and closes to within 27 of tying Ty Cobb's stolen base record.

1977 Lou Brock breaks Ty Cobb's career stolen base mark with number 893 in San Diego, August 29. Garry Templeton becomes youngest M.L. shortstop ever to gather 200 hits in a season. Templeton leads majors with 18 triples, highest number since 1957. Ted Simmons sets club record for home runs by a catcher with 21. Ken Reitz sets new fielding record with N.L. third baseman by committing only 9 errors. Bob Forsch wins 20 games.

1978 Bob Forsch no hits Phillies 5-0, April 16 at Busch Stadium. Manager, Vern Rapp dismissed April 24. Ken Boyer becomes Cardinal Manager April 29. Ted Simmons sets club season record and career high with 22 homers for a catcher. George Hendrick has 7 RBI's at Atlanta, August 25. Busch Memorial Stadium gets new astroturf.

1979 Lou Brock collected his 3000th career hit (single off Dennis Lamp) in the 4th inning against the Cubs on August 13 at Busch Stadium. On September 23, Brock stole his 938th base making him baseball's all-time stolen base leader surpassing William (Sliding Billy) Hamilton. Keith Hernandez wins batting title with .344 average and is co-winner of National League M.V.P. award with Pittsburgh's Willie Stargell. Garry Templeton led N.L. with 211 hits. Templeton also led the league in triples with 19, for the third year in a row, setting a new N.L. record and tying the major league mark. His 19 triples are highest number since 1957. He became the first switch-hitter in major league history to collect 100 hits, both right and left-handed, in one season. Garry finished with 100 hits RH and 111 hits LH. Ted Simmons hit a career high 26 home runs, which also set a club record for homers by a catcher.

1980 Ken Reitz sets new fielding record for N.L. third baseman by committing only 8 errors. Dane Iorg has 7 RBI's, August 28 vs. Atlanta. Manager Ken Boyer dismissed June 8. Whitey Herzog becomes Cardinal manager June 9. On August 18, John Claiborne fired as G.M. and Herzog named G.M. on August 29. Red Schoendienst served as interim manager for balance of season. On October 24, Herzog assumed dual role of general manager and field manager.

1981 The Cardinals finished the season with the best winning percentage in the Eastern Divi- sion, but missed the playoffs because they finished second in each of the two sections of the schedule caused by the mid-summer players' strike. The Philadelphia Phillies, leaders when the strike began, were voted the first-half championship (however, the Phillies, Cardinals, and Cincinnati Reds voted against it), while Montreal won the second half. In each half, the Cardinals played fewer games than the "winners", and could have tied or won either half with the opportunity to play the same number of games. In the individual field, Bruce Sutter, one of several players obtained in winter trades by Herzog, was the National League's top reliever, winning the Rolaids Relief Man award.

1982 In order to concentrate more on his managing duties, Whitey Herzog stepped down as General Manager on Opening Day, turning the reins over to Joe McDonald. The move paid off as the Cardinals were out of first place for only 48 days of the season and claimed their first ever National League East Championship. A 3-0 sweep of the Atlanta Braves put the Cards in their 13th World Series against the Milwaukee Brewers who fell 4-3 to St. Louis in the 'Fall Classic.' The 1982 team was characterized by an aggressive running style of baseball; seven players stole bases in double figures, led by team catalyst Lonnie Smith, who swiped 68. The team hit only 67 home runs, the fewest in the major leagues. Strong and consistent pitching performances were the rule; prior to clinching the title the Cardinals never lost more than three games in a row. Bruce Sutter had a hand in almost half of the team's victories.

1983 Despite the fact that the 1983 Cardinals finished in fourth place, eleven games out, the team was competitive and exciting, although inconsistent, throughout much of the season. The team climbed to within game of the division lead on September 5 before embarking on a thirteen-day road trip during which the failure of the starting rotation caused the team to plummet out of contention. Still there were noteworthy performances during the year. As a team, the running Redbirds set a new club record with 207 stolen bases. Individually, Danny Cox made his way from extended spring training in April to playing a part in the Cardinals' starting rotation. Bob Forsch pitched the second no-hitter of his career. The league's best right-fielder, George Hendrick, moved to first base after Keith Hernandez was traded and earned post -season honors at his new position. Ozzie Smith won his fourth straight Gold Glove and Willie McGee won his first one.

1984 The Cardinals got off to a bad start in 1984 and dwelled in fifth place for much of the first half of the season before turning things around after the All-Star break. Following the mid-summer classic the Cards posted a 42-33 record, second in the National League only to the eventual N.L. Champions, the Chicago Cubs. That surge lifted the Cards into a third place finish in the division at year end despite contending with many injuries...The team's 220 stolen bases set a new club record, surpassing the 207 mark from 1983, and made them the first major league team since the 1916 St. Louis Browns to steal 200 or more bases three years in a row...Individually, Bruce Sutter set a National League and tied the major league record for saves in a season (45). Joaquin Andujar (20-14) became the club's first 20-game winner in seven seasons. Rookie Terry Pendleton hit .324 after joining the club in July and sparking the team to a 41-29 record...The Cards drew over 2,000,000 fans for the third consecutive year.

1985 The Cardinals lost their first four games, struggled to 7-7, then lost four more. The next time they reached .500 it was at 20-20, and then things got better. They finally made it to first place on June 21, and they were there most of the season. Five defeats in six games early in September left the Cardinals a game behind the New York Mets with 25 to play. But the Redbirds then won 14 of their next 15 and took the division title by three games with 101 victories. Individually, Willie McGee was the batting champion (at .353, a new high for a N.L. switch-hitter) and Most Valuable Player; Vince Coleman was Rookie of the Year, and John Tudor and Joaquin Andujar each won 21 games and Danny Cox took 18. Willie McGee and Ozzie Smith won Gold Gloves again, and great starts by Tommy Herr (110 RBI) and Jack Clark (22 homers) contributed.

1986 The defending National League Champions stumbled at the beginning of the season. After the first two months of the season the Cardinals had the worst record in the League. But the team righted itself posting winning records in each of the next four months to finish third in the National League's Eastern Division. Individually Vince Coleman stole 107 bases to become the first player ever to steal over 100 bases in each of his first two seasons and the first N.L. player to steal 100 bases twice; rookie left-hander Greg Mathews, who was promoted from Louisville, won 11 games in little more than half a season; Ozzie Smith won his seventh straight Gold Glove and Todd Worrell was named N.L. Rookie of the Year. Worrell blazed his way to a major league rookie record 36 saves, becoming the first rookie pitcher ever to lead the league in saves and the first rookie to earn N.L. Relief Pitcher of the Year honor...Three attendance milestones were hit and surpassed during the course of the season. The Cardinals reached the two million mark for the fifth consecutive year, drew the 75 millionth fan in the history of the franchise since 1900 and drew the 50 millionth fan to see the Redbirds play under Anheuser-Busch ownership.

1987 Sparked by a potent offense, the Cardinals slipped no further than two games back in the N.L. East standings and claimed sole possession of first place on May 22. Beset by injuries to several key players throughout the season, manager Whitey Herzog made use of a mixture of experienced veterans and eager rookies to fill the voids created by injuries. The Cardinals extended their lead to 9 games on July 23 but saw the lead shrink to 1 games as late as Sept. 19. A come-from-behind win at New York on Sept. 11 followed by a doubleheader sweep of the Expos on Sept. 29, set the stage for the pennant clinching win over Montreal on Oct. 1. Several Cards enjoyed banner seasons offensively, including Vince Coleman (third straight season with 100 SB), Jack Clark (35 HR and 106 RBI), Ozzie Smith (.300 BA for first time in his career), Terry Pendleton (.286 BA and 96 RBI), Willie McGee (105 RBI). The Redbirds had four starters with 10 or more victories (John Tudor, Bob Forsch, Greg Mathews and Danny Cox) while rookie Joe Magrane showed much promise in his initial season. In the bullpen, Todd Worrell followed up his impressive rookie season with 33 saves and Ken Dayley overcame serious elbow surgery to post nine wins in relief. 1987 was a fantastic year at the gate as well, as the Cardinals drew a Major League leading 3,072,122 fans, becoming just the third club in M.L. history to surpass the three million mark in attendance.

1988 After acquiring Tom Brunansky from Minnesota in April, the defending N.L. champions climbed within six games of first on June 12, but injuries to Bob Horner and Terry Pendleton crippled the offense. By the end of July, the Cardinals were 19 games out of first. Newcomer Jose DeLeon became the first Cards pitcher since 1972 to record 200 strikeouts. Sophomore hurler Joe Magrane won the N.L. ERA title with a 2.18 mark, despite winning just five games. Todd Worrell posted his third-straight 30-save season, and Vince Coleman led the league in stolen bases for the fourth consecutive year. Jose Oquendo became the first N.L. player since 1918 to play all nine positions in a season. Trades that brought such names as Pedro Guerrero, Denny Walling and Brunansky to St. Louis also ended long-time affiliations with departing players Tom Herr, Bob Forsch and John Tudor. Despite their fifth-place finish, the Cardinals drew nearly 2.9 million fans to Busch.

1989 Although the outlook was bleak when injuries crippled the pitching staff in spring training, the Cardinals remained in the race until the final week of the season. The Redbirds pulled within a half-game of the division-leading Chicago Cubs with a dramatic come-from-behind win on September 9, but a six-game losing streak followed and the Cards sunk to third place on the final day of the season. Pedro Guerrero was spectacular in the clutch, batting .406 with runners in scoring position and leading the club with 117 RBI and a .311 batting average. Vince Coleman again led the league in stolen bases and set a major league record by stealing 50 consecutive bases without being caught, a streak begun in 1988. Despite the early concern over the pitching staff, Joe Magrane (18 wins) and Jose DeLeon (16) spearheaded the patched-up starting unit. The Cardinals set a club attendance record, attracting 3,080,980 fans during a season that ended on a sad note when long-time club president August A. Busch Jr. died at age 90.

1990 Considered by many to be a contender following the spring training "lockout", the Cardinals never lived up to those expectations and finished in last place for the first time since 1918. On July 5, Manager Whitey Herzog resigned after more than 10 years as the Cards' skipper. Red Schoendienst managed the club on an interim basis until August 2, when Joe Torre was named manager. Willie McGee won the league batting title (.335), despite being traded to Oakland in late August as the team made room for younger players. One of those was rookie catcher Todd Zeile, who led the team with 15 homers. John Tudor returned to the club and posted a team-high 12 wins but announced his retirement following the season. Vince Coleman led the league in steals for the sixth consecutive season, tying Maury Wills' N.L. record, and batted a career-high .292. Starting pitchers Jose DeLeon (a league-high 19 losses) and Joe Magrane (17 losses) were disappointments. Reliever Lee Smith was a steady closer following his acquisition in May, saving 27 games. Jose Oquendo set a major league record for fewest errors by a second baseman (three).

1991 Coming off a last-place finish, the Cardinals were one of baseball's biggest surprises in 1991, moving up to second place in the N.L. East. Manager Joe Torre, in his first full season at the Cardinals' helm, opened the year with several unproven players in key roles. Among the young standouts were outfielders Ray Lankford and Felix Jose. Lankford led the majors with 15 triples and had a team-high 44 steals. Nine Cardinals stole 10 or more bases, the first time since 1917 that a team had done so. Former Athletic Jose, playing his first full season in the National League, led the Cardinals in batting (.305) and filled Busch Stadium's spacious gaps with 40 doubles. Sophomore Todd Zeile made a fine transition from catcher to third base, leading the club with 11 homers and 81 RBI. Catcher Tom Pagnozzi, seeing his first full-time duty, earned a Gold Glove award. The season also was a good one for Cardinals named Smith. Lee Smith set an N.L. record with 47 saves and became only the fifth pitcher to record 300 career saves. Ozzie Smith set an N.L. record for fewest errors by a shortstop (eight) en route to winning his 12th Gold Glove. Bryn Smith's 12 wins paced the pitching staff, which was without Joe Magrane, Frank DiPino and Todd Worrell due to injuries. Young starters Ken Hill (11 wins) and Omar Olivares (11 wins), and reliever Cris Carpenter (10 wins) helped fill the void.

1992 Though injuries took a toll in the Cardinals' centennial season, the team actually led the N.L. East by one game on June 1, despite losing three players in the first week of the season. Injuries or illnesses continued to mount, however, as the team lost shortstop Ozzie Smith to chicken pox for two weeks in late June and Omar Olivares and Rheal Cormier from the starting rotation. At second base, seven players were used. Ray Lankford, moved from first to third in the order, became the first Cardinal since Lou Brock in 1967 to hit 20 homers and steal 20 bases. Ozzie Smith tied Felix Jose for the club lead in batting (.295) and stole a team-high 43 bases. The "Wizard" also collected his 2,000th career hit and 500th stolen base, besides earning his 12th All-Star Game berth and 13th Gold Glove. Bob Tewksbury emerged as the No. 1 starter, winning 16 games and ranking second in the majors with a 2.16 ERA. He joined Smith on the N.L. All-Star squad, as did catcher Tom Pagnozzi, who tied a league mark with a .999 fielding average, and reliever Lee Smith, who led the league in saves (43) for the second straight season. Smith received help in the bullpen from Todd Worrell, who, after missing the last two seasons to injury, moved into the top spot on the Cards' all-time saves list. The team's major league record 16-game errorless streak in August helped establish a club record for fielding (.985). On the down side, the Redbirds set records for most strikeouts and caught stealing in a season. Moving the fences in proved beneficial. The Cards set a Busch Stadium season high while out-homering opponents, 55-52.

1993 Helped by a 20-7 mark in June (a club record for the month) and a potent offense, the Cardinals closed to within three games of the front-running Philadelphia Phillies in mid-July, only to fall 10 games back by the end of August. Midseason injuries to relievers Mike Perez, Les Lancaster and Paul Kilgus put the pitching staff on the skids. Offensively, several players enjoyed banner seasons, reflected by the team's 118 home runs, the most in 30 years. Newcomer Gregg Jefferies finished third in the N.L. batting race at .342 and swiped 46 bases, the most ever by a Cardinal first baseman. Mark Whiten cracked a team-high 25 home runs, including four in the second game of a September 7 double-header at Cincinnati, thus becoming only the 12th player to accomplish the feat. His 12 RBI in the game tied former Cardinal Jim Bottomley's major league record. For the season, Whiten finished with 99 RBI. Todd Zeile drove in 60 after the All-Star break, finishing with a team-high 103 RBI as he settled into the cleanup spot. Bernard Gilkey enjoyed a breakthrough season, leading the club in hits, extra-base hits and runs scored. Ozzie Smith recorded his 16th-straight 20-steal season and passed Larry Bowa to become the all-time N.L. leader in games played at shortstop. Gerald Perry tied a club record with 24 pinch-hits. Though the pitching was largely inconsistent, Bob Tewksbury led the staff with a career-best 17 wins and walked only 20 batters for the second straight season. Cuban rookie Rene Arocha ranked second on the staff with 11 wins, despite missing nearly a month with a broken finger. Reliever Lee Smith became the majors' career saves leader in April and set a club record for career saves (160) before being traded to the New York Yankees in late August. The Cards slipped defensively, committing 159 errors and failing to place a member on the Rawlings' Gold Glove team for the first time since 1977.

1994 The 1994 season started with a bang when Ray Lankford homered in the first at-bat of the season, but a players' strike in mid-August forced the cancellation of the remainder of the season and the World Series, ending the year in tragic fashion. When play was suspended on August 12, the Redbirds were 53-61 and tied with Pittsburgh for third place in the newly formed N.L. Central Division. The club's 5.14 ERA was its worst since 1897, and the opposition out-scored the Cards by nearly 100 runs. A seven-game winning streak by Bob Tewksbury and a consecutive-game homer streak of 12 games highlighted the early portion of the schedule, helping the club stay within five games of first place through July 2. The Cardinals were involved in 14 shutouts and, despite terribly inconsistent pitching, won seven of them. They tied an N.L. record by using six pitchers in a shutout (2-0) win at Pittsburgh on May 17. On May 24 against Philadelphia, they established a record for most runners left on base (16) in a shutout loss. The Cardinals blasted 108 home runs, exceeding the 100-homer plateau for just the second time since 1980, and were on pace to hit their most round-trippers since 1963. They hit a Busch Stadium-record five home runs in a July 1 win vs. Colorado. An 8-20 record in July included two of the team's lowest moments: On July 16 at Colorado, Cardinal pitchers walked a team-record 16 batters, one short of the N.L. record, and on July 18, the team tied an N.L. mark by losing an 11-run lead in its 15-12 loss at Houston. Ozzie Smith passed Luis Aparicio on July 14 to become baseball's all-time assist leader at shortstop. On September 1, Mark Lamping was appointed president, replacing the retiring Stuart Meyer. Lamping named Walt Jocketty as the club's general manager in October, replacing Dal Maxvill, who had held the title since 1985. Hall of Famers Bob Gibson and Lou Brock were named to manager Joe Torre's coaching staff for 1995.

BUSCH STADIUM

In the mid-1950s, several years after he persuaded the board of directors of Anheuser-Busch to purchase the St. Louis Cardinals, August A. Busch Jr. realized that if the team was to continue to prosper and attract the fans necessary to support a major league franchise, it would have to move to a new stadium.

Mr. Busch took his idea for a new stadium in downtown St. Louis to city officials and civic leaders. Their interest in a major redevelopment of the downtown area and their realization that a new stadium could serve as the focal point paved the way for the laying of groundwork for the project.

In 1964, ground was broken, and on May 12, 1966, Busch Stadium officially opened as the new home of the St. Louis Cardinals. In a 12-inning inaugural, the Cardinals defeated the Atlanta Braves, 4-3.

Looking back over the stadium's 29-year past, it is clear that Mr. Busch and others involved in the project accurately anticipated that the new stadium would spur a rebirth of downtown St. Louis. With Busch Stadium as the focal point, the redevelopment of the downtown area has been marked by the addition of new office buildings, hotels, shopping complexes, parking garages and other facilities, including the Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum.

Busch Stadium is owned and operated by Civic Center Corporation, a subsidiary of Anheuser-Busch Companies, Inc. Anheuser-Busch, originally the largest contributor to the privately financed stadium, purchased the remaining shares of stock in 1981.

Through the 1994 season, more than 56 million people have attended 2,221 games at Busch Stadium. Civic Center Corp. has made a number of improvements to Busch to add to the entertainment experience of fans attending Cardinal games.

Recent improvements include the installation in 1993 of a state-of-the-art sound system and a new large-screen video display, a Diamond Vision MARK III High Contrast system by Mitsubishi Electronics. Prior to the 1995 season, a Plaza of Champions monument display honoring the Cardinals' World Championship teams was erected near the Stan Musial statue. The Stadium Club was totally renovated and included the addition of a sports theme bar.

Busch Stadium's basic structure is concrete, save for the moveable steel seating sections. The stadium is basically a two-deck facility with about half its seats in each deck. The seats completely surround the field without posts or columns to obstruct fans' views. The nearly circular structure has an outside diameter of more than 800 feet and covers more than 12 acres.

The playing field at Busch Stadium is 10 to 30 feet lower than street level. Spectators move from the entrance level either up or down to seating areas. There are eight major entrances.

Field dimensions, from home plate: left-field line, 330 feet; left-center field, 375; center field, 402; right-center field, 375; right-field line, 330. Outfield walls are 8-feet high.

Busch Stadium capacity is 57,078 (including 1,500 standing-room customers).

BUSCH STADIUM GROUND RULES

OUTFIELD AREA

Fair ball bounding into field boxes, bleachers or enclosed area in left- or right-field corners or going through or under fences — TWO BASES.

DUGOUTS

Ball rolling onto top step of dugouts (which are at ground level) is IN PLAY.

Photographers' area on outfield end of each dugout shall be considered part of the dugout.

Ball thrown by pitcher from the rubber to catch baserunner off first or third base that goes into stands or dugouts — ONE BASE.

A pitch, thrown or batted ball that hits anyone on the playing field except as otherwise provided for in the Official Rules is IN PLAY.

Any batted ball hitting automatic tarpaulin container would be a FOUL BALL.

Ball going through wire behind plate or lodging in it — ONE BASE on throw by pitcher — TWO BASES on throw by fielder.

FARM AND SCOUTING DEPARTMENT

MIKE JORGENSEN
DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Mike Jorgensen was named director of player development on February 5, 1992, succeeding Ted Simmons, who joined the Pittsburgh Pirates as general manager. Jorgensen had been working as the Cardinals' minor league hitting instructor/coordinator since 1990 after managing the Louisville Redbirds from 1987 to 1989.

After retiring as a player following the 1985 season, Jorgy was immediately hired as an instructor in the Cardinals' minor league system. Midway through the 1986 season, he was named manager at St. Petersburg when Dave Bialas moved up to Louisville to replace Jim Fregosi, who had been hired to manage the Chicago White Sox. Jorgensen led St. Petersburg to an 88-48 finish, the best mark in the Florida State League.

Jorgensen was a lefthanded-hitting first baseman-outfielder during a major league career that spanned 18 seasons. He was signed by the New York Mets in the June 1966 free-agent draft and made his big-league debut in 1968, appearing in eight games. He was traded to Montreal in a multiplayer deal for Rusty Staub at the start of the 1972 season, his first of five full seasons with the Expos. He went on to play for Oakland (1977), Texas (1978-79), the Mets again (1980-83), Atlanta (1983-84) and the Cardinals (1984-85), arriving with pitcher Ken Dayley in a trade for third baseman Ken Oberkfell.

Jorgensen, born August 16, 1948, in Passaic, NJ, and his wife, the former Brenda Rice, have three children: Brian Michael (9-30-73), Kristen Leigh (7-7-75) and Eric James (4-7-81). He graduated from Francis Lewis High School in Flushing, NY, and attended St. John's University. Jorgensen enjoys quail hunting,cooking and coaching basketball in his spare time.

MARTY MAIER
DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING

Marty Maier was appointed director of scouting following the 1993 season. He had served as assistant scouting director since 1988.

The former minor league infielder joined the Cardinals as a scouting supervisor in 1980. He was responsible for scouting the southeast United States from 1980-83 and added Latin America to his territory in 1984.

Originally from Hollywood, FL, Maier graduated from South Broward High School in 1970. He attended Broward Junior College in Fort Lauderdale and Florida State University, graduating with a bachelor's degree in education. Marty and his wife, the former Diane Sherman, reside in Oakland, CA. He enjoys snow skiing, golf and fresh-water fishing in his spare time.

FRED McALISTER
SPECIAL ASSIGNMENT SCOUT

Fred McAlister was named the Cardinals' special assignment scout following the 1993 season after serving as the club's scouting director since 1980. As special assignment scout, he reports directly to General Manager Walt Jocketty.

McAlister has been part of the Cardinals' organization since 1945, when he signed as a player out of high school. He played in the Cardinals' farm system from 1945 to 1960, serving as a player/coach or player/manager at various times.

During his tenure as scouting director, McAlister's first-round picks reached the majors in nine of his 13 drafts, including a streak of picks from 1981 to 1987. Through 1993, McAlister's drafts produced 41 players who played for the Cardinals, as well as six players who reached the majors with other organizations.

McAlister also was the Cardinals' assistant farm director from 1967-69. He then served as a scouting supervisor and special assignment scout from 1969-79.

SENIOR FIELD COORDINATOR FOR PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

As senior field coordinator for player development, George Kissell coordinates each of the Cardinals' minor league affiliates and reports to Director of Player Development Mike Jorgensen. Because of his expertise in the fundamentals of the game, Kissell handles many of the instructional duties for the minor leagues during spring training and extended spring training.

Kissell spent 10 years in the minor leagues as an infielder and has served the Cardinals in several capacities since he joined the organization in 1940. From 1946 to 1968, he worked as a manager, coach, scout and minor league instructor. Kissell was a Cardinals coach from 1969 to 1975 and a special field assistant to General Manager Bing Devine in 1976.

Kissell, a Watertown, NY, native, graduated with a master's degree from Ithaca (NY) College. He and his wife, Ginny, reside in St. Petersburg. The couple have a son, Dick, and a daughter, Kay.

MARK DeJOHN
FIELD COORDINATOR FOR PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Mark DeJohn enters his third season as the Cardinals' field coordinator for player development. In his position, he assists long-time minor league coordinator George Kissell.

The 41-year-old DeJohn returned to the Cardinals in 1993 after managing the Detroit Tigers' Class AA London, Ontario, affiliate during the 1992 season. He broke into the coaching ranks with the Tigers in 1984, serving as a minor league instructor, and coached at Kansas City's Eugene affiliate during the 1985 season. He began his managerial career that same year with Detroit's Birmingham farm club.

DeJohn joined the Cardinals' organization in 1986, managing the Savannah Cardinals to a 75-60 record. He spent two seasons in Savannah before taking the helm of the Midwest League's Springfield Cardinals in 1988. The next year, he was named manager of Johnson City, where he spent two seasons.

Originally drafted by the New York Mets in 1971, DeJohn later signed with the Toronto Blue Jays but never played in their organization. An infielder, he saw his only major league action in 1982, appearing in 24 games with Detroit.

DeJohn resides in New Britain, CT, with his wife, Judith Marie, and children, Timothy Stephen (11-31-84) and Stephanie Leigh (2-21-88). DeJohn attended Woodrow Wilson High School in Middletown, CT.

MINOR LEAGUE MANAGERS

JOE PETTINI
LOUISVILLE

Pettini begins his second year as the Louisville manager after guiding the Redbirds to a 74-68 record in 1994. Pettini has managed six seasons in the Cardinals' minor league system, posting a career record of 341-415.

The 40-year-old Pettini began his managerial career in 1989 with the Cardinals' Hamilton, Ontario, club. He had stops at St. Petersburg in 1990 (60-74) and at Arkansas for the 1991-93 seasons (175-229).

Pettini's playing career began in 1977, when he was signed by the Montreal Expos as a non-drafted free agent. In 1980, he was traded to the San Francisco Giants, where he played for four seasons. He was signed by Louisville in 1984 and played with the Redbirds for three seasons.

Pettini was born on January 26, 1955, in Wheeling, WV. He graduated from Brooke High School in Wellsburg, WV, in 1973. Pettini received a bachelor's degree in education from Mercer University in Macon, GA. He married the former Barbara Sperlazza on November 11, 1981. The couple have two children: Amy Michele (2-17-83) and Joseph James (6-15-87). Pettini enjoys bass fishing, hunting and golfing.

MIKE RAMSEY
ARKANSAS

Ramsey begins his fifth season as a manager in the Cardinals' farm system and his first at Arkansas. Last season, he guided St. Petersburg to a 74-65 record. In 1993, he led Springfield to a 78-58 mark and a playoff berth in the Midwest League. For his career, his clubs own a 272-280 record.

The 40-year-old Ramsey began his coaching career at Peoria in 1989. That winter, he was an instructor in the Cardinals' Winter Instructional League camp.

Ramsey was drafted as a player by the Cardinals in June 1975. He spent seven seasons in the major leagues with the Cardinals, Montreal Expos and Los Angeles Dodgers. He was a member of the Cardinals' 1982 World Series champion team.

Ramsey lives in Largo, FL, with his wife, Merle.

Maloney is entering his fifth season as a manager and his first at St. Petersburg. He is coming off a 68-67 finish at Arkansas.

In 1993, Maloney guided the Savannah Cardinals to a 94-48 record and the South Atlantic League championship–a feat that warranted his selection by USA Today's Baseball Weekly as its 1993 Manager of the Year. The year before, his .737 winning percentage (56-20) at Hamilton was the highest ever posted by a Cardinals farm team. Overall, Maloney has a career managerial record of 258-161 (.616).

Prior to taking his first managerial job at Johnson City in 1991, Maloney coached at Springfield in 1988, at Arkansas in 1989 and at Johnson City in 1990.

Maloney was signed as a non-drafted free agent by the New York Mets in June 1983. The outfielder-first baseman was purchased by the Cardinals in 1986 and played for Springfield.

Maloney graduated in 1979 from St. Joseph High School in Jackson, MS, and from Mississippi State University in 1983. He likes bass fishing, deer and duck hunting, and golfing. Maloney is involved with the Multiple Sclerosis Society and lives in Jackson during the off-season.

ROY SILVER
PEORIA

Silver enters his third season as a manager in the Cardinals' organization after leading New Jersey to a 43-32 record and the 1994 New York-Penn League championship. In 1993, he guided Chandler to a 31-22 record and earned Manager of the Year honors in the Arizona League. Silver has a career managerial record of 74-54 (.578). He coached at Springfield in 1992 after an eight-year playing career in the Cardinals' farm system.

The 32-year-old Silver was signed as a non-drafted free agent by the Cardinals in July 1984. A catcher-outfielder, he played at Johnson City, Savannah, St. Petersburg, Arkansas and Louisville.

Silver was born on September 22, 1962, in New York City. He graduated from Half Hollow Hills East High School on Long Island in 1980. He attended Eckerd College in Florida from 1980 to 1984 and was named to the Sunshine State All-Conference team. During the off-season, Silver lives in St. Petersburg, FL, with his wife, Dana.

SCOTT MELVIN
SAVANNAH

Melvin is beginning his second year as a manager in the Cardinals' organization and his first at Savannah. Last season, he led Chandler to a 34-22 first-place finish in the Arizona League and earned Manager of the Year honors. He served as a coach at Hamilton in 1992 and at Springfield in 1993.

The 31-year-old Melvin had a seven-year minor league career as an infielder. Signed originally by the Salt Lake City Trappers in 1985, he played for the Kinston Indians in 1986 before signing with the Cardinals in April 1987. Melvin's five seasons in the Cardinals' system included stops at Springfield, St. Petersburg and Arkansas. In 1988, he was named to the Florida State League all-star team.

Melvin was born on September 3, 1963, in Quincy, IL, where he graduated from high school. He earned a degree in criminal justice in 1985 from Bradley University and received NCAA All-Midwest honors for two years. Melvin still lives in Quincy.

LUIS MELENDEZ
NEW JERSEY

Melendez begins his first season as a manager at New Jersey. Last season, he led Savannah to an 82-55 record and the South Atlantic League championship. He served as a roving instructor for the minor leagues from 1991 to 1993 after managing at Hamilton in 1990 and Peoria in 1989. In his managerial career, Melendez has a 136-132 record. He also coached at Hamilton in 1988, his first season on the club's minor league staff.

The former outfielder, signed by St. Louis in 1968, saw action in eight major league seasons with the Cardinals and Padres. He enjoyed his best year in 1973, establishing career highs in games (121), runs (35), hits (91), doubles (18) and RBI (35).

Melendez, born August 11, 1949, in Aibonito, Puerto Rico, still makes his off-season home there.

STEVE TURCO
JOHNSON CITY

Turco begins his fourth season of managing in the Cardinals' organization and his second year at Johnson City. Last season, he led Johnson City to a 42-26 record and an Appalachian League playoff berth. He is 112-98 in three seasons as a manager.

The 36-year-old Turco also has three years' coaching experience to his credit, starting as a coach at Springfield in 1985 before moving to Savannah in 1986. After a four-year stint as a high school baseball coach, he returned to the professional level in 1991 to coach at Hamilton.

Turco was signed by the Cardinals in 1978 as an infielder and played in the farm system from 1979 to 1984.

Turco graduated from Cooper City High School in Florida in 1975. He earned a physical education degree from Florida State University in 1979. He resides in Largo, FL.

MINOR LEAGUE COACHES

DYAR MILLER
LOUISVILLE

Miller returns to Louisville for his second stint as a pitching coach in the Cardinals' organization.

Miller previously coached in the Cardinals' system at Arkansas (1985) and Louisville (1986). He was bullpen coach for the Chicago White Sox in 1987 and pitching and bullpen coach for the Sox in 1988. He coached in the Detroit system (1989-90) before serving as a pitching coach in the Cleveland Indians' organization from 1991 to 1994.

The 48-year-old Miller, a former pitcher, was originally signed by Philadelphia. He spent seven years in the majors, pitching for Baltimore (1975-77), California (1977-79), Toronto (1979) and the New York Mets (1980-81).

Miller was born May 29, 1946, in Batesville, IN. He graduated from New Point High School, where he participated in baseball, basketball and track. He earned a B.S. degree in 1968 from Utah State, where he played baseball and basketball. He and his wife, the former Bertha Jo Williams, have four children: Scott, Matthew, Christopher and Sara Mae. They reside in Batesville. Miller, a teacher during the off-season, enjoys golf, hiking and fishing.

JOE CUNNINGHAM
LOUISVILLE

Cunningham returns to the coaching ranks after three seasons as a manager in the Cardinals' system. He was 66-73 at Madison in 1994 and 37-31 at Johnson City in 1993, when he was named Appalachian League Manager of the Year. In 1992, he guided Chandler to a 28-28 record in his managerial debut.

Cunningham previously coached at Hamilton in 1989 and at Johnson City in 1990 and 1991.

The 32-year-old Cunningham, son of former Cardinal All-Star outfielder and long-time front office employee Joe Cunningham Jr., played in the Cardinals' organization from 1984 to 1988 with Johnson City, Savannah, St. Petersburg and Springfield.

Cunningham was born on January 16, 1963, in St. Louis, where he graduated from Parkway Central High School in 1981. He attended Gulf Coast Community College in Panama City, Florida. Off the field, Cunningham enjoys hunting and fishing.

MARTY MASON
ARKANSAS

Mason begins his sixth season at Arkansas and his 10th as a coach in the Cardinals' organization.

The 37-year-old Mason's coaching career began in 1986 at St. Petersburg, where he spent two seasons. He coached at Savannah in 1988, returned to St. Petersburg in 1989, then moved to Arkansas in 1990.

Mason originally was signed by the New York Yankees in 1980. He was acquired by the Cardinals in December 1982 after playing on loan that season for the club's Springfield affiliate. Mason also appeared with Arkansas and St. Petersburg. He retired after four games as a player-coach at St. Petersburg in 1986.

Mason was born April 4, 1958, in Central City, KY. He attended Central Alabama Academy from 1975 to 1976 and Western Kentucky University from 1977 to 1980. He married the former Lynn Bradford on February 22, 1986. The couple have one child: Brandy Leigh (8-17-88). Mason enjoys bass fishing and is a small-engine mechanic in his spare time.

JEFF SHIREMAN
ARKANSAS

Shireman makes his coaching debut in the Cardinals' organization following a seven-year minor league playing career in the system.

The 29-year-old Shireman was drafted by the Cardinals in June 1988. An infielder, he had stops at Johnson City, Springfield, St. Petersburg, Arkansas and Louisville. Shireman attended Georgia Southern, where he earned All-Conference honors in 1987 and 1988, and was named Conference Player of the Year in 1988.

Shireman was born March 3, 1966, at Ames, Iowa. He graduated from Bucholz High School, where he earned all-state honors in 1984 and all-district recognition from 1981 to 1983. He makes his off-season home in Little Rock, AR.

RICH FOLKERS
ST. PETERSBURG

Folkers is entering his third season as St. Petersburg's pitching coach. Prior to rejoining the Cardinals, the Tampa Bay resident spent five seasons as an assistant coach at Eckerd College.

The 48-year-old Folkers had a seven-year major league career with the Mets, Cardinals, Padres and Brewers. He posted a career 19-23 record and 4.12 ERA. His best season came in 1974, when he was 6-2 with two saves and a 3.00 ERA for the Cardinals.

JOHNNY LEWIS
ST. PETERSBURG

Lewis begins his first year as a coach at St. Petersburg after spending the last five seasons as the Cardinals' minor league hitting instructor. He also was an instructor in the St. Louis system from 1982-84 and managed for five years before that: at Calgary (1977-78), Gastonia (1979) and Johnson City (1980-81).

Lewis, signed as an outfielder by St. Louis in 1959, broke into the majors with the Cardinals in 1964. He spent the next three years with the New York Mets, striking one of the 1965 season's most memorable blows by hitting a 10th-inning homer to break up a no-hitter by the Cincinnati Reds' Jim Maloney. Lewis retired as a player after the 1968 season.

Lewis worked in the Cardinals' front office as assistant promotions and sales director for two years and was a farm system administrative assistant in 1972. He joined the Cardinals' coaching staff in March 1973 and remained for four years.

Lewis, 55 was born in Greenville, AL, and lives in Cantonment, FL, where he sells real estate during the off-season.

RAY SEARAGE
PEORIA

Searage enters his second season as the pitching coach for the Cardinals' Midwest League entry, which moves this year from Madison to Peoria. He joined the Cardinals' organization in 1994.

Searage had a nine-year major league career with the Mets, Brewers, White Sox and Dodgers. He was originally drafted by the Cardinals in 1976.

The 39-year-old Searage attended West Liberty (WV) State College. He and his wife, the former Vicki Allen, and their three children reside in St. Petersburg, FL.

KEITH SMITH
PEORIA

Smith begins his first season as coach at Peoria after two seasons as a minor league hitting instructor in the organization.

The 41-year-old former outfielder appeared in the majors with the Cardinals and Texas Rangers. He was signed by Texas after an All-America season at Manatee Junior College in 1972.

Smith played at Geneva (1972), Gastonia (1973-74), Pittsfield (1975) and Sacramento, where he batted .325 with 23 homers and 73 RBI in 1976.The next year, he was promoted to Tucson, where he hit .323 with 77 RBI before being called up by the Rangers. In 23 games with Texas, Smith batted .239 with two home runs and six RBI.

After hitting .309 at Tuscon in 1978, Smith was traded to the Cardinals for pitcher Tommy Toms. At Springfield in 1979, he led the American Association in batting (.350), drove in 61 runs and stole a career-high 30 bases. He was called up by the Cardinals in September and played in six games, hitting .231. In 1980, Smith split time between Springfield and St. Louis, where he batted .129 in 24 games.

Smith graduated from Palmetto High School in Palmetto, FL, in 1971. He lives in Bradenton, FL, with his wife, Arlene, and children, Keith and Andrea.

DAVE RICKETTS
SAVANNAH

Ricketts begins his first season as the pitching coach at Savannah after three seasons as the Cardinals' minor league roving catching instructor. He is entering his 22nd year as an instructor with the organization.

The 59-year-old Ricketts originally signed with the Cardinals in 1957. He was a backup catcher and pinch-hitter with the Cardinals from 1967 to 1969 and appeared in the 1967 and 1968 World Series. He spent his last season as a player with the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1970.

Ricketts began his coaching career with the Pirates, serving as their bullpen coach from 1971 to 1973. He joined the Cardinals as a major league coach in 1974. In 1976, he was named manager at Sarasota, where he guided the team to a third-place finish. He managed at Johnson City in 1977 before returning to the majors as a coach from 1978 to 1991.

Ricketts was born in Pottstown, PA. He earned a bachelor's of arts degree from Duquesne University, where he starred in basketball along with his brother, Dick, a former Cardinals pitcher. Ricketts lives in St. Louis with his wife, Barbara. The couple have one daughter, Candy.

MAURICIO NUNEZ
SAVANNAH

Nunez begins his fourth season as a coach in the Cardinals' organization and his first at Savannah. Nunez coached at Chandler in 1992 and 1994, and at Glens Falls in 1993.

The 32-year-old Nunez was signed by the Cardinals as a non-drafted free agent in January 1982. He spent 10 seasons as an outfielder in the Cardinals' organization, playing for Johnson City, St. Petersburg, Arkansas, Savannah and Louisville.

Nunez was born on January 26, 1963, at Santiago Rodriguez in the Dominican Republic, where he lives during the off-season.

HUB KITTLE
NEW JERSEY

Kittle begins his first year as pitching coach at New Jersey after spending the last 11 seasons as a pitching instructor in the Cardinals' minor league system. He returned to that role in 1984 after serving as the Cardinals' pitching coach for three seasons.

The 78-year-old Kittle also managed at St. Petersburg (1977) in the middle of his first stint as minor league pitching instructor (1976 and 1978-80).

Among other distinctions, Kittle has pitched professionally in six decades, capping it with a one-inning stint at Springfield late in the 1980 season. (He retired the side 1-2-3.)

Kittle started pitching professionally in 1936 but never reached the major leagues. He became a minor league manager in 1948, his first of 19 seasons as a farm club manager. From 1960 to 1963, he was a general manager at Yakima, Honolulu and Portland, OR. At Yakima in 1960, he was named Minor League Executive of the Year by The Sporting News. He joined the Houston organization as a minor league manager in 1968 and served on the Astros' coaching staff from 1971 to 1975.

Kittle makes his home in Yakima, WA, and is the father of seven children (four sons and three daughters).

TIM REDMAN
NEW JERSEY

Redman enters his third season as a Cardinals coach and his first at New Jersey. He coached at Johnson City in 1994 and at Chandler in 1993.

The 30-year-old Redman played for seven years in the Cardinals' minor league system after being selected in the eighth round of the June 1987 free-agent draft. The former catcher played at Erie, Hamilton, St. Petersburg, Arkansas and Louisville.

Redman attended Georgetown University, where he earned All-America, All-Conference, All-District and All-Area recognition. He graduated from Washington Senior High School in Washington Court House, OH, in 1983. He lettered in baseball, basketball and football.

Redman still resides in Washington Court House.

BOB MILLIKEN
JOHNSON CITY

Bob Milliken begins his first season as the pitching coach at Johnson City after spending the previous 18 seasons as a Cardinals minor league pitching instructor. "Bo" also served as the organization's pitching instructor from 1971-75, the Cardinals' pitching coach in 1976, and their bullpen coach from 1965-70. He pitched batting practice for the Cardinals in 1963 and 1964.

Milliken's 15-year playing career was spent mostly in the Dodgers' organization (1947-59). He was 8-4 as a long reliever and spot-starter for the Dodgers' 1953 pennant-winning team and pitched against the Yankees in the World Series. He joined the Cardinal organization in 1960 and pitched for the farm teams at Memphis, Atlanta and Charleston.

Milliken, born August 25, 1926, in Majorsville, WV, married the former Martha Knight (10-24-53). The couple have two children: Brian Knight (1-13-58) and Beth Lynn (3-16-60). Milliken enjoys bass fishing, deer hunting and country music.

RAMON ORTIZ
JOHNSON CITY

Ortiz begins his first season as a coach at Johnson City after coaching three years at Savannah. He joined the Cardinals' organization as a scout before the 1987 season and has served as a coach and scout since 1989.

The 42-year-old Ortiz began his professional playing career in 1969, when he signed out of high school with the Montreal Expos. In 1972, he was signed by Minnesota and played for their Key West team in the Florida State League.

After playing in the Mexican League in 1975, Ortiz coached in the Venezuelan Winter League and at University Central of Venezuela.

MINOR LEAGUE INSTRUCTORS

GEORGE HENDRICK
ROVING HITTING / OUTFIELD INSTRUCTOR

Hendrick, who played for the Cardinals from 1978 to 1984, is entering his third season as a roving instructor for hitting and outfield play.

A four-time All-Star, Hendrick concluded his 18-year playing career in 1988 with California. He was drafted by the Oakland A's in 1968 and made his big-league debut with Oakland in 1971. Hendrick posted a .278 career batting average in 2,048 games with Oakland (1971-72), Cleveland (1973-76), San Diego (1977-78), St. Louis (1978-84), Pittsburgh (1985) and California (1985-88).

Hendrick played for World Series winners with the Cardinals in 1982 and the A's in 1972. He was acquired by St. Louis in a May 1978 trade with San Diego for pitcher Eric Rasmussen.

The 45-year-old Hendrick is a native of Los Angeles, CA. His son, Brian, was a standout performer on the California University basketball team.

RICK MAHLER
PITCHING COORDINATOR

Mahler begins his fourth season as an instructor of Cardinals minor league pitchers after completing a major league career that spanned 11 seasons with Atlanta and Cincinnati.

Mahler signed with the Braves as a non-drafted free agent in 1975 after playing collegiate ball at Trinity University (San Antonio, TX). After brief appearances with Atlanta in 1979 (he collected a hit in his first at-bat) and 1980, Mahler fashioned a 2.81 ERA as a starter-reliever during the 1981 season. His best major league season came in 1985, when he started the season with seven consecutive wins en route to 17 victories and a 3.48 ERA. In 1988, he ranked second in the N.L. with a ratio of 1.5 walks per nine innings pitched.

Mahler signed with Cincinnati in December 1988 and pitched in the Reds' system through the 1990 season. He ended his career in 1991, splitting the season in the Montreal and Atlanta farm systems.

The 41-year-old Mahler and his wife, Sheryl, live in Marietta, GA. with their sons Ricky, Robby, Timothy and Tyler.

CARDINALS BROADCASTING — 1995

RADIO

KMOX-Radio, St. Louis, is the flagship station for a network of approximately 135 stations covering 11 states. It will broadcast all 1995 games with commentary by Jack Buck, Mike Shannon and Joe Buck.

TELEVISION

KPLR-TV (Channel 11), St. Louis, will televise locally and to a network of approximately 35 stations covering seven states. The Prime Network, a regional cable station, also will televise a number of games. Commentary will be provided by Joe Buck, Bob Carpenter and Al Hrabosky.

CARDINALS BROADCASTERS

JACK BUCK

Jack Buck has kept baseball fans spellbound with his diction and quick wit since he joined the Cardinals' broadcasting team in 1954. Buck was paid the ultimate compliment for his skills in 1987, when he was inducted into the broadcasters wing of the Baseball Hall of Fame as the Ford C. Frick Award recipient. Buck was inducted into the Broadcaster's Hall of Fame in 1990.

A native of Holyoke, Mass., Buck received a bachelor's of arts degree from Ohio State. He got his start in baseball as the play-by-play announcer for St. Louis' minor league clubs at Columbus and Rochester. Now KMOX-Radio's sports director, Buck has at one time or another broadcast almost every type of sports event imaginable. He has received widespread acclaim for his work as the voice of the National Football League and had the distinction of handling the first telecast of the old American Football League.

MIKE SHANNON

Mike Shannon enters his 24th season in the Cardinals' broadcast booth. His nine years as a Cardinal player and one year in the front office give Shannon a unique insight that comes to the fore in his commentary and color, which are only heightened by his zeal for the game.

The 55-year-old St. Louis native broke into the big leagues in 1962 and went on to star for the Redbirds' World Series champion teams in 1964 and 1967 and their N.L. pennant winner in 1968.

The former outfielder-third baseman joined the Cardinals' front office in 1971 as assistant director of promotions and sales. His career was cut short in 1970 by nephritis, a rare kidney disease.

JOE BUCK

After spending two seasons as the play-by-play voice of the Louisville Redbirds, Joe Buck joined the Cardinals' radio team in 1991.

Buck, 25, also has handled the play-by-play on Cardinals television broadcasts for both KPLR and Prime. He added the National Football League to his television duties in 1994 as an announcer on the Fox Network. Buck also has broadcast Missouri Tigers basketball games and in 1989 helped ESPN cover the Triple-A All-Star game.

A graduate of Country Day High School in St. Louis, Buck studied communications and English at Indiana University. He married the former Ann Archambault in January 1993.

AL HRABOSKY

Al Hrabosky has made a smooth transition from one of St. Louis' best-loved athletes, the "Mad Hungarian" of the Cardinals' 1970s bullpen, to one of the town's favorite broadcasters. His expert commentary and sharp wit are a staple of Cardinals telecasts on KPLR and Prime.

Hrabosky's fast rise in broadcasting came as no surprise. During a 13-year major league career in which he compiled 97 saves and earned Fireman of the Year honors in 1975, Hrabosky already was preparing himself for broadcasting by working as a sportscaster for a St. Louis TV station.

BOB CARPENTER

After broadcasting his first major league game in 1984 on the Cardinals' old Sportstime cable network, Carpenter returns to his St. Louis roots in 1995 after stops in the broadcast booths of the Texas Rangers, New York Mets and Minnesota Twins. Carpenter will serve as the play-by-play voice on Prime and KPLR telecasts.

Carpenter also is remembered locally for broadcasting St. Louis Steamers indoor-soccer games from 1983-86, but more recently he has been one of the busiest announcers on the national level. On the USA Network, he has hosted the U.S. Open tennis championship and The Masters golf tournament. On ESPN, he has announced college football and basketball games, World Cup soccer and hosted Hall of Fame induction ceremonies.

The St. Louis native is a 1971 graduate of McBride High School and earned a degree in broadcasting from UMKC. He and his wife, Debbie, have two daughters.

QUALIFICATIONS AND REGULATIONS

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A BATTING CHAMPION:
Highest batting average and 502 or more plate appearances.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A PITCHING CHAMPION:
Lowest ERA and 162 or more innings pitched.

PLAYER LIMITS:
40 until opening day, when the number must be reduced to 25 until September 1, when it again may become 40.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A SAVE:
A relief pitcher shall be credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:
1. He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and
2. He is not the winning pitcher, and
3. He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
   a. He enters the game with lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or
   b. He enters the game with potential tying run either on base, at-bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces), or
   c. He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

DETERMINING BATTING AVERAGE:
Divide the number of at-bats into the number of hits.

DETERMINING AN EARNED-RUN-AVERAGE:
Multiply the number of earned runs by nine; take the number and divide it by the number of innings pitched.

TRADING REGULATIONS:
Trades may be made with any other major league club in the period from the end of the championship season through July 31 without waivers. Waivers are required, however:
1. If the assignment is to another major league club: From August 1 to the end of the season.
2. If assignment is to a minor league club, with right of recall, at any time after 3 years from the date the player first reported to a major league club during a championship season.
3. If assigned to a minor league club without right of recall, after acquiring 3 years service: At any time during the year.
4. If assigned to a minor league club, without right of recall, at any time prior to acquiring three years of service, special waivers are required between September 1 and the opening of the following season. If player is claimed, request may be withdrawn. If no claims are made, club has 7-day period in which to make assignment to minor leagues.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A "ROOKIE":
A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service).

DETERMINING THE MAGIC NUMBER:
Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the lost column of the standings from the closest opponent.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP:
Highest fielding average and (a) catcher must have played in at least 81 games; (b) infielder or outfielder must have played in at least 108 games; and (c) pitcher must have 162 innings pitched.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAK:
A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances result in a walk, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME PLAYING STREAK:
A consecutive-game playing streak shall extend if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

RULES OF INTEREST

DOCTORED BAT: If a filled or "doctored" bat is used, the player is to be called out and ejected from the game and is subject to additional penalties. Any balls hit by an illegal bat do not count. If the umpire sees the illegal bat before it is used, he issues a warning, but there is no penalty.

GAME WINNING RBI: The RBI which gives a club the lead it never relinquishes.

NIGHT GAME: Any game scheduled to start after 5 P.M. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at 5 P.M. and is delayed for any reason it will be considered a day game. If a game is scheduled to start at 5:01 P.M. it will be considered a night game. Twinight double-headers shall be considered two night games.

PINCH-HITTERS: A player shall be considered a pinch-hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and only on his first time at bat which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around and a pinch-hitter comes up a second time in the inning in which he first appeared, he will not be considered a pinch-hitter during that second time up.

SUSPENDED GAME RULE: For the purpose of this rule, all performances in the completion of a suspended game shall be considered as occurring on the original date of the game.

A game terminated by curfew or by a prearranged time limit is a suspended game if it has progressed to be an official game (4 1/2 or 5 innings).

A game terminated by light failure or malfunction of mechanical field device under control of the home club is a suspended game anytime after it begins.

Rule 4.11 (d)...A called game ends at the moment the umpire terminates play; EXCEPTION: If the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, the game becomes a suspended game in each of the following situations:

(1) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score and the home team has not scored.

(2) The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension immediately preceding the next scheduled, single game between the two clubs at the same site.

Any legal game called due to weather with the score tied is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

WAIVER AND DRAFT PRICES: The waiver price is $20,000 and the Major League Draft price is $50,000.

YEARS OF SERVICE: 172 days constitute a full major league year of service.

AMATEUR DRAFT
FREE-AGENCY DRAFT SUMMARY

Major League and National Association clubs meet once a year for the purpose of drafting free-agent player talent. Meetings are conducted by conference phone. Selection of a free agent entitles the club to exclusive right of negotiation with that player from the date of selection until 10 days prior to next draft. Clubs choose in inverse order of major league standings, selecting free agents and previous draftees who had not signed contracts but had instead enrolled in four-year colleges and since had either completed their junior year or turned 21 years old. Each organization may select only one player for each of its major league, AAA or AA rosters, but is not limited to the number of picks for "A" level. Minor league clubs select in the same relative order as their parent clubs.
